WPA joins nation's fraternalists in saluting FIC's during May NAPERVILLE, IL - This May the National Fraternal Congress of America (NFCA) salutes the fraternal benefit system's professional sales force during Fraternal Insurance Counsellors' (FIC) Month.

The fraternal benefit system is proud of its community service and fraternal programs, but one of the most important benefits to our members are the financial services provided by our professional member recruiters and sales agents.

While everyone who helps with member recruitment is integral, May is set aside each year to recognize the system's Fraternal Insurance Counsellors. FICs are talented and energetic fraternalists who have worked hard, studied and completed the required coursework to achieve their well-deserved designation.

The WPA is proud to recognize our officers, national directors, employees and sales representatives who have earned this designation. We thank our FICs, listed below, for serving our members according to the highest ethical standards and for remaining loyal to our society and Fraternalism.

George S. Charles Jr., national president; Debra S. Evans, annuity specialist; Noreen Fritz, sales representative; Andrew J. Girard, sales representative; Alan Szabo, sales representative; Michael F. Tomcsak, former national director; Richard W. Toth, national vice president-secretary; and E.E. (Al) Vargo, vice chairman of the Board.

26th Annual WPA Golf Tournament & Scholarship Days

Join us for a weekend of 'Monte Carlo' excitement and golfing at Quicksilver Golf Club

All members and friends of the WPA are invited to join us for a fun and exciting weekend when we host our 26th Annual Golf Tournament & Scholarship Days, July 17 and 18.

This year, our tournament returns to the Quicksilver Golf Club in Midway, Pa. This magnificent course not only played host to the WPA tournament in 2007 but also has been the site of tournaments sponsored by the Senior PGA Tour, the Nationwide Tour and the Hooters Tour. Golf Digest has awarded it a 4-star rating. Golf Week Magazine calls it one of the top 15 courses in Pennsylvania and the best public course in the state. It is a true championship course.

Adding to the excitement of this year's tournament weekend is the introduction of "Monte Carlo Night," to be held Friday evening as part of our annual pre-tournament golfers reception at the Pittsburgh Airport Marriott. After enjoying complimentary food and refreshments, golfers and guests will be invited to try their luck at various casino games that will be set up in the hotel ballroom. It promises to be a fun evening and a grand beginning to our fraternal weekend.

Our 18-hole tournament will begin the next morning with a shotgun start at 8:30 a.m. Play will be straight scramble. Along the course, golfers will have the chance to win prizes as part of our traditional skill shot contests, including longest drive, longest putt, closest to the pin and closest to the line. All golfers will also enjoy the use of GPS-equipped carts and a sandwich and beverage at the turn.

Our weekend's official activities will conclude with the annual golf barbeque to be held at the Quicksilver Golf Club immediately following the tournament.

To enter the tournament and reserve your seats for the barbeque, complete the form found on Page 19 of this issue and send it to Endre Csoman at the Home Office by June 29. Be sure you include your check covering tournament fees and barbeque tickets.

Accommodations for the weekend will be at the Pittsburgh Airport Marriott. All golfers and guests must make their own room reservations directly with the hotel by calling (412) 788-8800.

The tournament entry fee is $140. This fee includes green fees, bag service, locker room service, scoring done by the pro shop, GPS-equipped golf carts, a sandwich and beverage at the turn AND admission to the golf barbeque.

Room rates at the Marriott are $89 per night based on double occupancy. All rooms will be reserved on a first-come/first-served basis and are subject to availability.

Tickets for the barbeque are $40 for adults age 16 and older, $10 for teens ages 12 to 15 and free for children ages 11 and under.

Once again, the tournament will feature the fun and exciting Hole-In-One Contests. All eligible members who score a hole-in-one at the designated par-3 hole during tournament play will win a $15,000 cash prize. Any non-member who scores an ace on the designated hole will win $7,500. Plus, cash prizes will be awarded to golfers who score a hole-in-one on any of Quicksilver's other par-3 holes during tournament play. On those holes, eligible WPA members will win $5,000, while non-members can take home $2,500.

If a hole-in-one is not scored on the $15,000 hole, a special $500 cash prize will be awarded to the eligible member who gets his or her tee shot closest to the pin on that hole. By "eligible member" we mean a golfer who is an adult life benefit member of the William Penn Association by July 1, 2009, with at least one year's premiums paid.

For those arriving early on Friday, July 17, the WPA has reserved tee times at Quicksilver that day between 10:30 a.m. and 2:00 p.m. Green fees for Friday will be $45 per player. To reserve a Friday tee time, call the golf club at 724-796-1594 and mention you are with the William Penn Association.

On the shoulders of our forefathers

The values upon which the first fraternal benefit society was founded 140 years ago are what will keep fraternalism alive for the next generation of members.

A few years after the close of the Civil War, a master mechanic in the railroad shops at Meadville, Pa., conceived the idea of organizing his fellow workers to introduce his "ideas of right and justice between man and man." The year was 1868, and John J. Upchurch organized Jefferson Lodge No. 1 of the Ancient Order of United Workmen.

This was the beginning of the vast American fraternal system, which today is composed of more than 100 fraternal benefit societies in the United States with millions of members.

Each fraternal benefit society operates under a representative form of government, for the benefit of the membership and without profit.

No member of any fraternal benefit society who is consistent in maintaining his or her membership need ever hope in vain for a friend, because he or she will have many. He need not go without comfort in sickness because there will be a brother or sister member there to look after his wants.

Most of our fraternal benefit societies originated as brotherly organizations comprised of those who spoke the language of a shared homeland but were now living in a new country. Their racial ties were strengthened by fraternal ties of mutual aid and encouragement during trying days in the lives of the membership.

Our ethnic-based societies devoted much to the spirit and cause of fraternity in those days. When the tide of immigration was at its height, it was unnecessary to canvas for new members. New arrivals joined the local branches on their own accord and sheer desire to be among their own countrymen. In those days, the immigrants lived more or less together in communities.

Today, the problem is somewhat different. People of a shared ethnic heritage live scattered over the length and breadth of the United States. We must make the attempt to reach those who moved away from the inner cities. We must recruit our young people into our folds at any cost. The future of our fraternal benefit societies depends on juvenile membership. We must implement plans for attracting young people on whose shoulders rest the responsibility for a successful future.

Our societies need cooperation between adults and youths. Age can provide wisdom, experience and, perhaps, money. Youth can provide a guarantee of comparative immortality, vision and working muscles.

When we call upon our young people to come and be our brothers and sisters in our fraternal organizations, we must do so with the intention not only of giving them protection in the form of life insurance but also of assisting them in their social life so that they may claim their place in this world as honest and good citizens.

So what is Fraternalism? It is defined in many ways, but, basically, it is caring about others. If you are a church member, you witness your church performing many acts of fraternalism, such as caring for the elderly or providing help for people in less fortunate circumstances. There are many organizations which perform such acts of fraternalism, such as the Red Cross and Salvation Army. Some 50 years ago, while I spent some time in a refuge camp in Austria-Germany and in Camp Kilmer, N.J., both of these organizations helped me a great deal, which I will never forget.

with Endre Csoman

At that time, I was sponsored by a church from Camp Kilmer.

The fraternal groups produce many benefits through fraternal activities, including scholarship programs, food banks, Habitat for Humanity and countless others. The benefits these fraternal activities produce would never be realized by the people who need them if it were not for our churches, our supportive agencies and our fraternal benefit societies.

We in the fraternal benefit system also recognize the need for families to function financially after the death of a loved one, and we provide means to assist in that regard.

The supportive agencies who restore dignity and balance after disasters or tragedies are another arm of fraternalism.

All of these support systems work together to bring families together and restore balance. But, where did these values originate? How did these agencies and societies come about? Who ultimately constructed such a caring system?

I believe it came from a fraternal heart--people who care about one another, people who want to help one another. This is what led to the establishment of our churches and their tradition of living their strong faith. This is what led to the creation of supportive agencies whose work is to serve their fellow human beings. And this is what led to the formation of fraternal benefit societies who saw the need for financial stability after the death of a loved one.

Thankfully, we live in a country that enforces these values. The reward is the satisfaction in knowing that our goal transcends all others--the goal of serving our fellow man. WPL

AHF honors environmentalist, public servant

NEW BRUNSWICK, NJ - A highly successful young environmentalist and an extremely active public servant were honored April 25 during the American Hungarian Foundation's 46th Anniversary Carousel Ball held at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in New Brunswick.

Tom Szaky, founder and chief executive officer of TerraCycle, was presented the Foundation's Abraham Lincoln Award. Also honored was Melonie Krisza Marano, mayor of Green Brook, N.J., who received the Distinguished Service Award.

Szaky was born in Budapest in 1982 and emigrated with his family as political refugees first to Holland and then to Canada in 1989. At the age of 14 he started his first business, an award-winning web design company, and later helped start three small Internet companies.

He came to the United States in 2001 and attended Princeton University, but left college to form

TerraCycle, Inc., known for organic plant food. From a two-man operation in the basement of an old office building in Princeton, TerraCycle now occupies a 20,000-square-foot factory in Trenton where it employs about 45 workers. It is a "second chance employer" which hires veterans, ex-convicts, former drug addicts and the homeless to work as part of a team. It is one of the faster growing organic and eco-friendly companies in the country and sells its products through numerous retailers, including Home Depot, Wal-Mart, Target and Whole Foods.

Marano, whose maternal grandparents emigrated from Hungary in the early 1900s, is a graduate of Rider College. After earning a degree in accounting, she worked for a public accounting firm and then for the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP) for 11 years. She later worked for another music licensing group,

SESAC.

In 2003, she ran for a seat on the Green Brook Township Committee as a Democrat, becoming the first member of her party to win such a seat in more than 20 years. In 2009, her peers on the township committee appointed her mayor, the township's first Democratic mayor in 46 years.

She has served on the Green Brook Environmental Commission; Green Brook Flood Control Commission; Green Brook Cultural, Heritage and Historical Preservation Committee; Green Brook Design Group; Planning Board and Elder Affairs Committee.

Dedicated to fostering volunteerism, Marano was the creator and chair of Green Brook's annual Volunteer Day, which attracts about 400 volunteers to clean up the town. She has also served as a Girl Scout leader, religious school teacher, Junior Achievement consultant and chair of the 2008 Red Cross Heroes fundraising campaign.

Great Grilling

FÁRADJON BE A MAGYAR KONYHÁBA.

The winter is officially gone, and now we can enjoy the best of the spring and summer seasons.

Keeping that in mind, it's time to take the cover off the gas grill, brush off the cobwebs and get set to cook some great food. If you don't have a gas grill, get on over to Home Depot or Wal-Mart and get your charcoal briquettes and starting fluid.

Before we get started, let's do some housekeeping with WPA events. Don't forget your suggestions are always welcome by email or snail mail AND I answer all my mail!

The William Penn Life has details about the upcoming Hungarian Room dinner at the University of Pittsburgh on June 13.

There is still room in the Hungarian Heritage Experience at Penn Scenic View which is scheduled for the first week of August.

Our golf tournament at the wonderful Quicksilver Golf Course is a "go" and more information about it can be found in this issue.

Don't forget to read the William Penn Life to find out about local Hungarian happenings in your area.

Last, but not least, the monthly trivia question: Where did the term "barbeque" originate? The tasty answer is cooking on the grill!

When we talk about grilling, the first things that come up are the words "barbeque" and "cookout." These words do not mean the same thing. Barbecue is a whole different style of food and menu than what you would serve at a cookout.

Cookout is what you do at a barbeque. A cookout is where you literally cook out of the house. Let me add that grilling is what you do at a barbeque. Grilling is the art of cooking using a radiant heat method usually provided by charcoal or a steady flame source that is under or completely surrounding the food. Most folks have a gas or charcoal grill in their yard or on the patio or back porch. If you live near the beach like I do, you can dig a pit, fill it with hot coals and have a pit barbeque.

Follow my simple tips and you will enjoy tasty food on your grill.

Marinate meats in a liquid marinade before grilling for extra flavor, but watch the amount of oil you use in the marinade. The oil will catch fire and leave your food with a sooty film, and it won't taste that great either.

Try dry rubs on ribs and chicken for extra flavor and slow cook these foods, turning often to make sure they cook evenly. If you want the best ribs, marinate them overnight then slow cook on the grill. Pork ribs in my opinion are the best to grill.

You can also grill steaks, veal chops and pork loins, just remember to keep turning to cook evenly. When these meats are almost cooked to your desired temperature, brush on some sauce to cook on extra flavor.

If you like seafood, try thick pieces of fish or large shrimp. Just remember seafood is quicker to cook than meats because of less connective tissue in the meat. Try lighter barbaque sauces or a citrus juice for great flavor.

For side dishes, I like veggies lightly tossed in vinaigrette then grilled until al dente. Add a freshly made salad and you're all set for some great eating. Happy grilling and enjoy the recipes this month.

Trivia answer: The French originated the term as it was originally pronounced "barbe a queue," which roughly translated means from "beard to tail." The earliest recorded barbeques featured whole animals which were gutted then cooked and served.

Dinner for 4

Kirántott Csirke (Breaded Chicken)

- 3-pound chicken cut into eight pieces
- 3 whole eggs
- 4 tablespoons flour
- 2 teaspoons Hungarian paprika
- ½ cup bread crumbs
- Lard for frying

Beat the eggs in a deep dish. Mix the flour with paprika and set aside. Dust the chicken with the flour, then dip in egg wash and coat with breadcrumbs. Fry in the hot shortening until golden brown on all sides. Serve with mashed potatoes and a fresh vegetable.

RECIPES

Basic BBQ Sauce

4 garlic cloves, minced
 2 large onions, diced small
 2 tablespoons canola oil
 16 oz. tomato puree
 24 ounces whole tomatoes in juice
 9 oz. cider vinegar
 4 tablespoons brown sugar
 1 tablespoon kosher salt
 1 tablespoon black pepper
 1 tablespoon Hungarian paprika
 2 teaspoons chili powder
 2 tablespoons molasses
 2 oz. orange juice concentrate
 1 tablespoon liquid smoke
 4 tablespoons smooth Dijon mustard

In a heavy bottom sauté pan, heat oil and sauté the garlic for 30 seconds, add the onions and cook until the onions are nicely caramelized, approximately five to eight minutes. Add all remaining ingredients, bring to a boil, reduce heat and simmer for two hours; the longer you cook the sauce, the more the acidity is reduced. Purée in a blender until smooth or serve chunky style to your guests.

Magyar BBQ Rub

8 tablespoons Hungarian sweet paprika
 4 tablespoons Kosher salt
 4 tablespoons brown sugar

4 tablespoons granulated sugar
 4 tablespoons ground cumin
 4 tablespoons chili powder
 4 tablespoons black pepper
 1 teaspoon cayenne pepper
 ½ teaspoon ground clove

Combine all ingredients and mix well.

Basic BBQ Sauce

1 cup prepared yellow mustard
 ¾ cup cider vinegar
 ½ cup molasses
 ¼ cup honey
 2 tablespoons peanut oil
 2 ½ teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
 1 teaspoon kosher salt
 ½ teaspoon ground white pepper
 ½ teaspoon freshly ground black pepper
 ¼ teaspoon cayenne pepper

In a small stainless-steel or other nonreactive saucepan, combine the mustard, vinegar, molasses, honey, peanut oil and Worcestershire sauce; whisk to combine. Continue stirring while bringing to a simmer over medium-high heat. Add the salt, white pepper, black pepper and cayenne, and whisk to combine. Reduce the heat to maintain a simmer and let the sauce cook for another five minutes, stirring occasionally. Let cool to room temperature before using.

Nagymama's Recept*

Ischli Fánk (Cookie Sandwiches)

¾ cup unsalted butter
 ½ teaspoon grated lemon rind
 ¾ cup confectioner's sugar
 1 whole egg
 ½ cup ground hazelnuts
 1 ½ cups flour
 ¼ teaspoon cinnamon
 ¼ teaspoon cocoa powder

Cream the butter and sugar until soft, then gradually add the sugar and mix thoroughly. Add the egg and lemon rind and beat until light and fluffy. Blend in the ground nuts. Sift together the flour, cinnamon and cocoa, then add to the mixture in small amounts, mixing after each addition. Put dough in refrigerator for 20 minutes, then roll out dough to ¼-inch thickness. Cut into rounds with a cookie cutter and place on a cookie sheet. Bake at 350 degrees for 15 minutes in a preheated oven. Make cookie sandwiches from two rounds. Fill with apricot or raspberry jam.

Branch 14 Cleveland, OH

by Dawn D. Ward

The last branch meeting prior to summer recess was held April 1. Members discussed the branch-sponsored outing to the Indians game July 31 against the Detroit Tigers. This annual outing has proven to be one of the most fun-filled and well-attended affairs that we have during the year.

The branch unanimously voted to donate $1,000 to become Gold Level members in the William Penn Association Scholarship Foundation's "Tree of Knowledge." Branch 14 has always supported the Scholarship Foundation. We regard this as another opportunity to help a worthy cause. The "Tree" is mounted in the second floor foyer of the WPA Home Office. Contributors will be recognized with individual "leaves" on the tree. Members are encouraged to help the "Tree" grow.

The 26th Annual WPA Golf Tournament and Scholarship Days will be held July 17 and 18 at the Quicksilver Golf Course near Pittsburgh. Anyone wishing to play should contact Caroline Lanzara at 216-581-8979 for further information.

There are still tickets available for the bus going to the 9th Annual WPA Picnic-A Great Fraternal Fest to be held at Penn Scenic View on Sept. 12. Contact Violet Sarosi at 440-248-9012 for information and reservations.

Branch member Tony France won first place in the elite division at the 43rd annual Autorama held at the I-X Center on March 20. He won in the Exotic Car category. His car, a 1973 Pantera, defeated two other cars, a Lamborghini and a Ferrari. Tony has owned the car since 1977. In addition to keeping the car in spotless condition, Tony actually uses the car in his everyday life, weather permitting. The car's parts were made by Ford-Germany and Ford-France, and the car was assembled in Italy. It has a

The branch was well-represented on the Brecksville men's basketball age 50-and-over league championship team. Team members with a WPA connection are Jim Bourquin, Charlie Schroer and Jeff Ward. The men won a hard-fought final game by the score of 50-41. Great job, guys!

With Memorial Day approaching, it is important to acknowledge the debt of gratitude we owe to all our members who have served so faithfully in the Armed Forces. We can never thank them enough.

Our next meeting will be held Wednesday, Sept. 2, at the Bethlen Hall of the First Hungarian Reformed Church, 14530 Alexander Road, Walton Hills. All branch members are welcome to attend.

I think spring may have finally arrived. We got a few inches of snow on April 6, but it finally has gone away. Wasn't that a winter?

Memorial Day is just around the corner. Remember to thank a vet for all their sacrifices for us.

Happy retirement, Marge Boso. Enjoy your well-deserved freedom.

Thank you, Diane Malloy, Haley and Sarah, for thinking of me. We will keep saving all our tabs for you.

Get well wishes to Grace Balaythy, Shirley Kotik, Marguerite McNelis, Joe Horvath of Toledo, Joe Hamari, Eleanor Kender, Gerry Davenport, Brian Cady, Eva Schroth and Rocky Borsa. You are all very special people. Get well soon.

Congratulations to Bishop Wolfe for making the honor roll for the first time. I'm sure it will happen many more times. We sure do miss our Florida family. Love you guys.

Happy birthday to Elsie Kantor, Rose Wickers, Jason Wolfe, Father Barnabas and all our members. Hope you have many more. Sorry to have missed your birthday, Tony Wolfe. I know you had a super day with your dad.

Thank you, Emma Borsa, Wally Burinda and Emery Breznai for thinking of the WPA and me for your insurance and annuity needs.

Nice to talk to you, John Schroth. I know you will receive the William Penn Life now.

Congratulations, Todd George, on landing a super job. Nowadays, you should be especially proud for even

With Easter now past, I hope spring is here for good.

The Hungarian Reformed Church held its hurka and sausage sale recently. Several WPA ladies helped make the good Hungarian sausages.

On March 15 the Hungarian church held a commemorative program honoring the people and events of the 1848 Hungarian Revolution against the Habsburgs and Austria. About 120 guests attended. After the program, all enjoyed a wonderful dinner featuring Hungarian food and pastries.

We are looking forward to our local picnic, which will be held on the church grounds and will again feature good Hungarian food and music.

Our condolences to the family of Joe Toth who passed away recently. We really miss him at our branch meetings. Rest in peace, Joe.

Bob Hinebaugh recently underwent open heart surgery. He is now coming along nicely.

Several members are planning to attend the WPA Golf Tournament and Scholarship Days in July and the WPA Picnic-A Great Fraternal Fest in September.

For any life insurance or annuity needs, please call Árpád Sibrik at 614-231-8024 or write to 645 S. Kellner Road, Columbus OH 43209.

Branch 800 Altoona, PA

by Vincent Frank

Happy Mother's Day on Sunday, May 10. May the good Lord bless all mothers, especially on this day set aside to honor and thank all of our mothers for the many joys that you bring to our families.

Memorial Day will be observed on May 25. It's a day to honor those Americans who died defending our nation and it's values. While we should honor those heroes every day, we should pay them special honor on Memorial Day. To our men and women in uniform--past, present and future--may God bless you and, from the bottom of our hearts, thank you.

Branch 800 meetings are held on the first Tuesday of each month from September through May at 7:00 p.m. at Our Lady of Lourdes Educational Center in Altoona. All members are most welcome to attend.

Happy birthday greetings go out to Regis Ball of Altoona who is celebrating 85 years this May. Regis tells me that he enjoys good health.

Here we are at the month of May and time to start thinking about summer vacations. We invite you to vacation at the WPA's own Penn Scenic View, which is about an hour's drive from Pittsburgh. You will find comfort, privacy and reasonable prices to rent cabins or the lodge. For more information or to make reservations, call toll-free 1-800-848-7366, ext. 103.

For all your life insurance and annuity needs, call Bob Jones in Altoona at 814-942-2661.

by Noreen Fritz, FIC, LUTCF

It was very sad to hear of the sudden loss of member Veronica "Noni" Huefner. Our deepest sympathy to her family. Their sorrow is shared by everyone who knew and loved Noni.

Do you know that Clarion has a super hero? His name is Kevin Slike, an officer of Branch 8114. Kevin is completely devoted to helping others. Kevin drives his neighbors to their doctor's appointments, shopping, hair appointments and anywhere else they can't make it on their own. Lately, he has been delivering daffodils for the Cancer Society. The flowers are purchased by the people and businesses of Clarion, and Kevin delivers them. The proceeds go to the Cancer Society. Kevin has been helping others for years. He is truly a blessing to many people.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schmader on their new great grandchild, Samantha Rhoads, and congratulations to us for having a new little member.

Mother's Day is a day for honoring and thanking our mothers for giving us life, raising us, loving us and being the truest friend we could ever have. This is a loving Happy Mother's Day wish for all the mothers reading this.

Please keep in your prayers Bill Rice, son of Gordon and Dottie Rice. Also needing prayers are Harold and Evelyn Seitz, who are currently in a nursing home.

Branch members having birthdays this month are: Braden Huefner, Don Schill, Christopher Gatesman, Ann Troese, Tiffany Best, Virgil Beary, Jane Carroll, Kathleen Callihan, Jerome Judy, Vado Savelli, Stanley Schill, Joseph Stahlman, William Huefner, Amy Bish and Robert Gourley. Happy birthday! Wishing you peace, joy and contentment and all the gifts that money can't buy.

I am available to help you, free of charge, by reviewing any life insurance policy or annuity you may have. You may end up with a lower premium or no premium.

If you have branch news to share or questions on life insurance, IRA transfers, 401-K direct rollovers, any pension plan or just need a change of beneficiary, please keep in mind that there is no sales charge, and I work in any area. I can be reached at 412-821-1837 or P.O. Box 15060, Pittsburgh, PA 15237-0060. Or e-mail me at noreenbunny.fritz@verizon.net.

Branch 8121 St. Marys, PA

At our first meeting of the year on April 1, we were honored to have as our guests National Vice President-Fraternal Endre Csoman and his wife Arlene. Mr. Csoman explained some of the programs offered by the WPA that would be beneficial to our branch and our members. We were happy to spend the evening with him and his wife, reminiscing about the activities of the branch.

We were saddened by the loss of two of our members earlier this year: Marinus Bobenrieth, a longtime and active member; and Elizabeth (Betty) Emmert, who was a charter member of Ladies Branch 8126 and then a member of Branch 8121. Betty continued to serve in the office of branch auditor until poor health made it impossible for her to attend meetings.

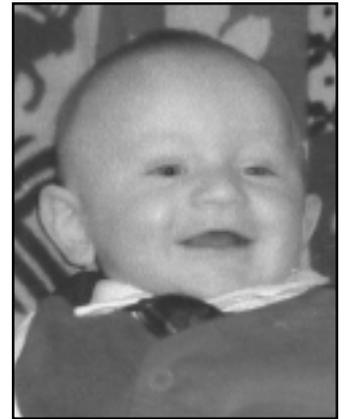

We were happy to see the "thank you" letter that was published in the March issue of the William Penn Life, written by member Melinda Marconi thanking the WPA for the surprise Christmas gift and for her scholarship grant. She wrote of her younger brother's enjoyment with the glitter light that was given by the WPA to young members at Christmastime.

Welcome to our Fraternal Family

We happily present more of our newest members. If you have a child or grandchild who recently joined the WPA, then send us his or her photograph. We will publish it in an upcoming issue so that all our members can welcome your child into our WPA Fraternal Family. All photos will be published as soon as possible.
