Branching Out with Endre Csoman

Remembering March 15, 1848

WHEN REFLECTING on the Hungarian Revolution of 1848, we always praise the spirit of the youth who lined up behind Kossuth, Petőfi and many other leaders of that time. We pay tribute to this spirit that was manifested by the people's wish for freedom.

This wish existed long before them. Let us not forget the many times when the Hungarian people were occupied and suppressed by other nations. Let us not forget the Mongolians and the Turks, and let us bear in mind that those nations whom we shielded were busy avoiding helping us. With all the power in Europe, it took 150 years to liberate Hungary from the Turks. Only after it was evident that the Hungarian people, with their spirit of freedom, were surviving did help arrive, probably to take control over a weakened nation, as it happened.

Between 1830 and 1848, a political period of reform took place in Hungary. It was still the time of feudalism which suppressed peasants and small farmers. The peasants paid high taxes to the government and tithes to the Catholic Church and land owners. The official language was German or Latin until

In 1847, Lajos Kossuth was elected to Parliament, representing Pest County. His election to Parliament made it a forgone conclusion that the Diet (or legislative assembly) of 1847-48 would bring huge changes to Hungary's politics. Indeed, the changes to the throne Kossuth proposed were unanimously carried. In 1848, Hungary suddenly emerged as a fully democratized constitutional kingdom. A few days after the reforms were enacted, the revolution began in Vienna.

There were demands for the dismissal of Prince Klemens von Metternich and the introduction of constitutional reforms. The news of the Vienna Revolution was received in Pest with great joy. On March 15th, under the leadership of Lajos Kossuth, the great statesman and champion of the people's rights, Hungarians took up arms in defense of national independence and human liberties. The people of the city filled the streets and a large public demonstration got underway.

The ink was barely dry on the newly sanctioned laws when the Magyars had to resort to arms to defend their liberties against the armed forces of the monarchy who knew no honor. Then the Russian invasion against Hungary began on May 4, 1849. The successful Magyar struggle for freedom was cut short by the Russian Czar Nicholas I. He sent division after division to invade Hungary. (Here I must mention, that history repeated itself on November 4, 1956, when the Russians invaded Hungary after the October 1956 revolt.)

On Aug. 12, 1849, Kossuth transferred the civil authority to General Artúr Görgely. Shortly after, General Görgely ordered his army to lay down their arms before the Russian General Rüdiger at Világos, near Arad, and the war of Magyar independence was over.

On Aug. 18, Kossuth, along with some 5,000 followers, crossed the frontier at Orsova onto Turkish soil, where he was arrested and thrown into a Turkish prison. The United States, acting with Great Britain, requested Kossuth's immediate release from the Sultan of Turkey.

On March 3, 1851, the Congress of the United States passed a joint resolution, signed by President Millard Fillmore, inviting Kossuth to visit the United States. He visited the United States from 1851 to 1852 and made a large-scale tour with public speeches and appearances throughout the United States. As a committed democrat, a champion of universal liberty and an orator of exceptional talent who spoke after people's own hearts, he was received with great enthusiasm and was celebrated by the American nation during his visits. He visited New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington where he was the official guest of the Congress.

Meantime, the citizens of Pittsburgh, acting through their mayor, the honorable John B. Guthrie, had invited Kossuth to visit this city. Kossuth accepted the invitation and from that date until his arrival, the city stirred with excitement. His arrival was delayed due to heavy snow and intense cold. He finally arrived on Jan. 22, 1852, and spent 10 days in Pittsburgh. The first day he was confined to his room, recovering from a severe cold. However, he stepped out on the balcony of the St. Charles Hotel on the corner of 3rd and Wood Street and addressed a few remarks to the waiting crowd.

The next day by noon, a crowd estimated at 12,000 people had wedged their way into the streets surrounding his hotel. Delegations came from neighboring counties of Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Lawrence and Mercer. Each day, Kossuth was the guest of a different group. He visited many industrial plants where he addressed the employees. He addressed the German Association for the Friends of Hungary, the Young Men's Society of Pittsburgh and several church organizations.

He was given a magnificent reception by the masses everywhere but could not get the official support of any foreign country. Disappointed in his hopes, forsaken by many friends, Kossuth refused to return to the land he loved so much. The great Magyar apostle gave back his soul to his Creator on March 20, 1894, in Torino, Italy.

Ever since, March 15th has been observed by Magyars, wherever they may live, as their Liberty Day. The Magyar people observe March 15th with the same significance as Americans celebrate the Fourth of July.

And Hungary and the Magyars never forgot Kossuth; he has remained the hero of his nation and father of the Magyar people.

Life insurance for your children

MOST PARENTS WONDER if they should buy life insurance for their children. Every parent plans to outlive their children, but if the unthinkable should happen, life insurance coverage for your children would bring you some peace of mind during a difficult time. With a life insurance policy in place, you would be able to cover the expenses of a funeral.

Because you will be buying life insurance for a child, you won't need to purchase a million dollar policy. Anywhere from $10,000 to $20,000 is a good starting point for a child's life insurance policy. With such low amounts of coverage, the costs are relatively inexpensive. When trying to decide exactly what type of coverage to purchase for your children, make sure that your insurance agent explains to you how your child can continue the coverage when he or she becomes an adult. For example, William Penn Association offers a special Juvenile Term to Age 25 plan that provides $20,000 of insurance for your child for only $25 a year or a low, one-time premium. Under this special plan, your child is not only covered until age 25 but also earns credit towards purchasing an adult life insurance plan when he or she reaches age 25.

Another option would be to purchase whole life insurance policies for your children now. With this type of policy, your children will have coverage from now through adulthood, regardless of their health, as long as you (or they) continue to pay the premiums.

It is advantageous to purchase whole life (or permanent) insurance when > your children are young because there are a number of factors that can affect your children's future insurability. High blood pressure, diabetes and heart issues are just a few of the many health complications that can prevent your child from being insured down the road. With a policy that guarantees that your child will always be insured, an adult.

Make sure that you choose the right policy type. For children of any age, insurance plans make the perfect gift. For a newborn child, these plans offer a lifetime of protection; for a recent graduate, they can be the start of financial security.

To learn more about how the various life insurance plans can benefit the children you love, contact your local William Penn Association representative or call our Home Office toll-free at: 1-800-848-7366 ext. 120. □

Jonathan has a no nonsense approach to helping his clients. He speaks with them on a level all can understand; he plans to be the agent for his clients and their family for life.

He always says, "I really try to make sure I'm not talking anyone into anything," focusing only on the needs of his clients. Because of this, he is building a host of pleased clients for Medicare supplements and life insurance.

There are unique niche products that WPA offers, and Jonathan will continue to offer them in the state of Maryland. He is looking to spread the word about WPA's life and annuity products in order to help Marylanders with their goals.

Tibor's Take with Tibor Check, Jr.

Tying up loose ends

EVERY SO OFTEN, I arrive at a point in the writing of Tibor's Take where I must "cull the herd" in respects to subjects discussed. Sometimes, I must pare down a nearly prepared column because, by the time you would read it, its relevancy or importance would have faded. Other times, my topic of choice is too narrow in scope to engulf my allotted two-page spread. Many times, I must either further clarify or explain in depth a previous topic with you, my faithful readers. In many of those cases, a few paragraphs of dialogue are enough to answer any questions.

This month, I will be condensing several thoughts and ideas. If reader response to any of these subjects merits more reflection on my part, then future Takes will cover those subjects.

Here are a few of my abbreviated topics:

On rare occasions, great minds and ideas come together without any communication or contact. In the February 2013 edition of William Penn Life, my sister Erzsi and I wrote about making hurka. Her wordsearch offered a brief description of the ingredients used in making this Magyar staple. My column was more about the cultural and traditional aspects of my family making this special wintertime treat. In that same issue, Chef Béla dedicated The Hungarian Kitchen to the making of sausage. I hope you enjoyed this unintentional and unplanned collaboration of subject matter.

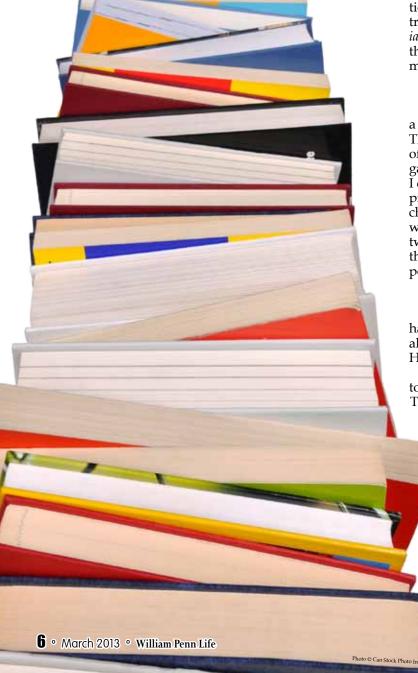

A few Easters ago, I mentioned that our család has had a húsvéti fenyő (Easter tree) in celebration of the season. This annual tradition was started by my Nagyanya Cseh of Youngstown, Ohio, and cousin Jean Kessler of Southgate, Mich. I did not include a picture of the fenyő because I could not find any. However, I recently found a 1981 picture of my anya posing next to the tree. The trees have changed in shape and size over the years. Occasionally, we have decorated the trees with pastel yellow and blue twinkle lights. Somewhere in our photographic archives, there is a photo of a 1968 húsvéti tree. Once I find it, I will post it here.

Several readers of Tibor's Take and the Puzzle Contest have sent inquiries to my sister and me asking if Lizzy really owns several Magyar cookbooks? The answer is YES! How many does she have? Well....

One snowy and frigid Sunday, my siblings and I began to talk about my sister's extensive cookbook collection. Through the generosity of Nagynéni Gena, Nagymama Cseh and my apa, she has acquired scores of cookbooks.

That day, I asked Erzsi to make something that she has never made before. I also asked her to use a Hungarian cookbook she never used before. To fulfill this request, Liz had to assemble together her books from several locations in the house. I asked her why she didn't have them all together. She laughed and replied: "Are you kidding? If I had them in one location, I would need a special room to hold them all!" No wonder she does not know how many cookbooks she has!

Once she gathered the Magyar cookbooks together, her count was 31. She thinks there are a few more hidden somewhere.

Dad meets Cardinal Mindszenty 1972

By the way, she fulfilled my request by preparing the Mák Koch (Poppy Seed Soufflé) recipe found on page 208 of A Taste of Hungarian Heaven, the most recent WPA cookbook printed in 2006.

That cold, snowy vasárnap afternoon turned out to be a relaxing respite for my entire család. As we sat around our warm, glowing fireplace, the five of us went though the cookbooks looking for anything unusual or different. Each of us had a different interest in the quest of particulars. As I perused the volumes, my attention was tweaked by some rather odd tidbits of information.

The Bakery Restaurant Cookbook was authored by the late Chef Louis Szathmary. The title page was autographed by the great chef himself. He personalized it to my anya with an amusing set of drawings. I then turned to the next page and saw in the neatest of penmanship an inscription from my apa: "Happy Sweetest Day 1982."

I asked my father about the book and the story behind it. He told me that the late Elizabeth Leffler Szabo, in conjunction with the Youngstown International Institute, held a cooking fair at the Idora Park Ballroom in Youngstown. (Mrs. Szabo was a visionary when it came to establishing Magyar events and celebrations.) For several years this event featured Chef Louis as the marquee exhibitor. He would schedule several sessions demonstrating his version of cooking Hungarian style. "Everyone who is a 'foodie' thinks Emeril is the father of demonstrative cooking that utilizes humor and wit as part of the program," my dad said. "Chef Szathmary was doing this decades before Emeril!" Being a good friend of Mrs. Szabo, my apa had backstage access to the show. There, he not only had the opportunity to converse with the cooking master one on one but also had the pleasure of sampling his wonderful creations. In retrospect, my apa is sad that he never took any photographs of the legendary chef or the event.

My brother Endre learned an interesting fact found from the Hungarian Cookbook by Yolanda Nagy Fintor. Loosely interpreted, the Hungarian word "húsvét" translates into English as "now the meat." I know the Magyar word for meat is "hús," but I never made the grammatical connection to this root word. Abstinence from any meat during the Lenten season was a requirement of the early Catholic church. Hence, when Lent ended on Easter Sunday, the faithful could enjoy meat again. So, should I say as a greeting to my American-Hungarian friends this Easter "Happy Meat Eating"?

In recent Takes, I have written about the WPA sponsored trip to Hungary in 2012. My mother and father had the extreme pleasure and honor of being one of the tour members. My apa told me about how beautiful the cathedral in Esztergom was. The history that took place there over the centuries is awe inspiring. Cardinal Mindszenty is entombed in the basement of this hallmark church. My dad was disappointed that the religious store there had nothing for sale in honor of the Cardinal or any of the other Hungarian saints. My anya said they had plenty of medals for Saint Christopher, John the Baptist and Saint Peter, but there was little, if anything, that was made in Hungary or honoring the Magyar saints.

Not long after his release from a confinement at the U.S. Embassy in Budapest, Mindszenty came to America. He came to Youngstown and celebrated Mass at St. Stephen of Hungary Church in 1972. My dad boasted that he had the honor of serving as an altar boy for that Mass and spent several minutes speaking to the Cardinal. (The pastor of St. Stephen Church, Monsignor Dezső Török, selected only his best servers for this important concelebrated mass.) I really did not believe my apa. Dad sensed my "Doubting Thomas" attitude. To prove his story, he produced for my viewing a photo of him kneeling before the Primate to Hungary in full conversation. Wonders never cease!

Boldog Húsvéti Ünnepeket!

The Hungarian Kitchen, with Főszakács Béla

The Hortobágy region

FÁRADJON BE A MAGYAR KONYHÁBA!

Hungarian cuisine is defined by history and cultural changes over centuries. Western and Eastern influences shaped the foods we enjoy today which were passed down from generation to generation. Magyars learned many culinary skills from friendly neighbors and conquering invaders. The art of cooking in kettles was a result of Asiatic Magyars who roamed the countryside imparting their kettle proficiencies with anyone willing to learn. Eventually, these skills would make the iron kettle a gastronomic symbol of Hungarian culture.

Puszta: a flat, treeless area; a vast wilderness with grasses and bushes.

Such is the description given to the Hortobágy region of Hungary. The major city of this area is Debrecen, the second largest in Hungary. Debrecen is a direct contrast to a puszta. Debrecen has lush gardens, trees and many flowers. During the month of August, many events take place in the area, one of which is the Carnival of Flowers.

If ever there were an area of Hungary where one could appreciate nature and all its beauty, it is the Hortobágy region. This region is home to herdsmen who have roamed the Great Plains for centuries and who have been major contributors to Magyar culture. This area is also the largest natural grassland in the entire European continent. Covering 80,000 hectares, Hortobágy National Park is the largest protected area in Hungary and a giant bird sanctuary. Many species such as cranes, geese and other shore birds migrate to and roost in the park. The Hortobágy also is home to rare breeds of fauna such as the Nonius Horse, Hungarian Grey Long Horned Cattle, Water Buffalo, Racka Straight Horned Sheep and Mangalica Pigs.

The website of the European Commission offers a lot of interesting information about this region of Hungary. You can read all about this region online at http://ec.europa.eu/enterprise/index_en.htm and enter the word "Hortobágy" in the search box.

The recipes in this month's column are traditional to what you would find in most restaurants and eateries in Debrecen and the surrounding area. With plenty of freshwater fish, beef, pork and poultry indigenous to the area, many traditional meals have been prepared over the centuries satisfying many palates of those who value Magyar cuisine. Enjoy the recipes with your family and friends. Have a great month.

If you store yeast or flour products containing yeast in the refrigerator, make sure you allow them to warm up to room temperature before using them. A warm kitchen will wake up the yeast.

- 2 teaspoons salt
- 1/2 teaspoon black pepper

Fry the bacon in a skillet, then cool and add to the ground pork, saving the bacon fat in the skillet. Fry the onions in the skillet until they are well cooked. Add half to the pork mixture, then sprinkle the remaining onions with some paprika and add two ounces of water.

Rinse the sauerkraut and drain, then add the remaining onion/paprika mixture, blending well.

In another mixing bowl, combine the pork, rice, garlic, egg and remaining paprika, salt, pepper and marjoram, combining well.

Cut the thick ribbing out of each cabbage leaf, then spread some pork mixture over the leaf and roll up, tucking in each end of the leaf toward the center of the roll.

In a baking dish large enough to hold everything, spread the sauerkraut evenly and add another two ounces of water to wet the sauerkraut. Position the sausages against each edge of the dish and place the cabbage rolls seam side down in the middle of the dish. Cover the dish with foil or a lid and bake at 350°F for one hour. Check the rolls for doneness, then remove along with the sausages and keep warm.

Brown the remaining flour in lard and mix together with four ounces of cold water, then add to the sauerkraut mixture and boil for a few minutes.

Cut slits into the sausages and place them back in the baking dish along with the cabbage rolls. Dollop sour cream over the cabbage rolls, sprinkle with paprika for garnish and serve hot to your guests.

Practical Pointer

Freezing has a minimal effect on the vitamin and mineral content of foods. Depending on the type of food, the method used to process and freeze it, and the amount of time between harvesting and freezing, your food can be lower in vitamin content or not affected at all. The highest quality food is fresh, but if you can't get fresh, get frozen. Avoid canned products as they are too high in sodium.

RECIPES

Hortobágy Palacsinta

THE FILLING

1/2 pounds yeal or chicken, medium

2 white onions, minced I teaspoon salt I tablespoon lard

11/2 cups sour cream

1/4 cup flour

I tablespoon paprika

Sauté the veal (or chicken), onions and salt in the lard for five minutes, then cover the pan and cook another five minutes. Remove juices from the pan, leaving a somewhat dry meat mixture. Add two tablespoons of sour cream and simmer the meat for 30 minutes.

THE PALACSINTA 3 whole eggs 1½ cups flour I cup whole milk 1/4 cup chicken stock I teaspoon sugar 1/4 teaspoon salt 1/2 cup carbonated water Sweet butter

Mix the eggs, flour, milk, stock, sugar and salt to make a smooth, pourable batter. Let the batter rest for one hour. Stir in the carbonated water just before you start cooking the palacsinta.

Heat a crepe pan or small sauté pan and add some sweet butter when the pan is hot. Swirl the pan so the butter coats the entire surface. Using a two-ounce ladle, pour in batter and tip the pan so the batter coats the bottom surface. Let the palacsinta cook for two minutes until you see the edges begin to turn light brown. Turn the palacsinta over and cook another 30 seconds, then remove from the pan.

Continue making palacsinta using up all the batter, giving you 12 to 14 pancakes. Cool on parchment but do not stack on each other. Keep warm until ready to fill with meat mixture.

Fill the pancakes with the cooked meat and roll them, tucking in the ends as you would for stuffed cabbage. Put the pancakes seam side down in a casserole dish and keep warm in the oven.

Mix the remaining sour cream with the flour and add the saved meat juices with the paprika to make gravy. Strain, then pour over the hot palacsinta and garnish with a sprinkle of paprika. Serve hot to your guests.

Mézes Puszedli (Honey Macaroons)

3 whole eggs 5 ounces sugar 12 ounces blossom honey 4 ounces butter, unsalted 1³/₄ pounds flour I teaspoon baking soda

1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon

1/2 cup walnut halves

1/2 cup hazelnuts

In a mixing bowl combine the eggs, sugar, honey and butter. Add the flour in gradual amounts, then the baking soda and mix well. Let dough rest for 30 minutes. Roll out the dough to a thickness of 11/2 inches and punch into rounds using a biscuit cutter. Place a nut piece of your choice in the center of each round and place on a buttered and floured baking sheet spaced one inch apart. Bake at 400°F for five minutes and check for doneness. The color should be slightly golden. If the product needs more time, bake in additional two minute increments until the macaroon is finished. Remove from the oven, let cool to room temperature, then serve to your guests.

Slambuc

4 ounces smoked bacon, diced small I white onion, finely chopped I teaspoon hot paprika 8 ounces csusza (flat noodles) 11/4 pounds potatoes, peeled & diced

medium

8 ounces paprika sausage, sliced to thin

Salt & white pepper to taste

In a heavy bottomed saucepan, fry the bacon in its own fat. Add the csusza and slowly brown it in the bacon fat. Stir in the onion then sprinkle in the paprika and add enough water to cover the pasta. Cook the pasta until it's al dente, then add the potatoes, green pepper and tomato. Season with salt & pepper and let cook until the potatoes are done. Add the thin sausage rings and cook until the entire contents are tender. DO NOT STIR THE PAN but shake it to make sure nothing sticks to the bottom. The end result is a mixture so thick you can stand a spoon straight up. Spoon into a bowl, garnish with paprika and serve hot to your guests.

Sárgarépás Káposztasaláta

2 pounds white cabbage, shredded I onion, medium, cut into rings I carrot, large, sliced into thin coins I teaspoon ground caraway seeds I teaspoon sugar 3 tablespoons white vinegar 3 tablespoons salad oil Salt & white pepper to taste

In a saucepan, add one pint water, sugar, ground caraway, salt and vinegar. Bring to a boil, then simmer for five minutes. In a mixing bowl, combine the onion and carrot and mix lightly. Pour the hot water mixture over the vegetables and let stand for one hour until cool. Before serving, drain off the liquid and sprinkle the salad oil over the vegetables, then toss lightly. Adjust taste with salt & pepper. Garnish with parsley then serve to your guests.

Greetings from Ohio's North Coast where the Lake Erie snow machine continues to produce lake effect

Congratulations to Endre Csoman, National Vice President-Fraternal, who was honored by the Hungarian Arts Club at the 2013 Fehér Rózsa Bál (White Rose Ball) held at the historic Marriott Dearborn Inn in Dearborn, Mich., on Feb. 2. The WPA Official Family traveled to Michigan to be part of Endre's special night and to celebrate with him. It was a treat to meet the entire Csoman family who were introduced during the Ball. Endre's family and William Penn Association can be proud of Endre's numerous accomplishments. All I can say is that he has been a very busy man.

In the spirit of fraternalism, a few members of Branch 14 assisted the Womens' Guild of The First Hungarian Reformed Church in the making of kolbász and hurka. Branch 14 members included FHRC Women's Guild President Violet Sarosi, Ernie and Richard Sarosi, Paul Varga, Albert Frate and even the church minister, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Csaba Krasznai. Other church members participating were Lajos Visnyovszky, Janet Tajgiszer and Susan and Steve Lorincz. Å total of 240 pounds of kolbász and 165 pounds of hurka were made over a period of three days. It was a delicious experience and one that could be repeated sometime in the

The WPA Bowling Tournament registration forms are ready. Please join us for a fun filled fraternal weekend May 3 and 4 where our adult and juvenile members will display their bowling skills. On March 15, we commemorate the heroes in Hungarian history who fought and gave their life for freedom in Hungary during the 1848 freedom fight.

WPA scholarship information and an application form can be found in this issue of William Penn Life, beginning on Page 14. Please pay close attention to the deadlines for mailing application materials.

Many fraternal activities will take place in 2013 for our members to enjoy, including:

Some 165 pounds of hurka was made with the help of Branch 14 members. They also made 240 pounds of kolbász.

As I write this report, I am back in Michigan for a wonderful event. The Hungarian Arts Club has chosen to honor WPA National Vice President-Fraternal Endre Csoman during its annual White Rose Ball. They could not have picked a more deserving person. Endre always works hard to keep WPA so very visible.

What a wonderful week it was. Thank you to the Hungarian Rhapsody restaurant and to Steve, Darlene, Jennifer and all their employees for serving such a wonderful dinner on the Friday evening before the Ball. Thank you to Ursula, Tamas and all the members of the Hungarian Arts Club committee for organizing another successful Ball. Thank you also to all the WPA Official Family members who made the trip to Michigan and for making Endre feel so special. And, thank you to Father Barnabas for being a great WPA supporter.

I cannot wait for the 2014 Ball. Happy 19th anniversary to Father Barnabas and Father Angelus. It sure doesn't seem like you have been with us for so long. We hope it will be 19 more.

Branch 18 resumes its monthly meetings on Wednesday, April 10 at 7:00 p.m. We meet at the Hungarian American Cultural Center on Goddard Road. We hope to see you there. We will be finalizing plans for our June trip to the Quad cities. Please let me know if you plan to Join Hands Day is Saturday, June 1. Please mark that on your calendars. It's so much easier to get a big job done with many hands. Besides that, participating makes you feel so great.

Happy birthday to all our March members, especially Dustyn Allanson, Joan Rectenwald, Cassie Holmes, Andy McNelis, Helen Molnar, Roger Nagy, Stephanie Martincsek, Kathy Reitlinger, Ursula Markovits, Jennifer Sullivan and, last but not least, my husand and Gabby's dad, Tom House. (We love you.) May you all have many more.

I have reserved my spot on WPA's trip to Hungary and Transylvania. I hope you consider joining us. We have so many wonderful plans for you.

But, before then, I hope you are planning to join us for our annual family bowling weekend. Last year was so much fun. Being in a casino offers many things to take up your time. It is also Kentucky Derby weekend. The whole event was fun from start to finish. Please put this on your list of things to do.

Get well wishes to Doug Truesdell (it sure was great to see you at the Rhapsody), Rose and Art Antal, Joan Parete, Ann Kertesz, Al and Olga Wansa, Janet Totsky and Tillie Balogh. I hope you all join us real soon.

Please remember in your prayers our deceased members and their families, especially Dorothy Kayko, Margaret Hopp and Mary Batyik. May they rest in peace.

Thank you, Helen Molnar, for being such a great surrogate daughter and sister to my mom and I, respectively. You are appreciated. I hope you plan on joining our trip to Europe.

I can always be reached at my cell number, 313-418-5572.

I hope I will see you all very soon. Think bowling, branch meeting, June trip, Europe trip and Spring!

Branch 28 Youngstown, OH

by Kathy Novak

What a month March will be. We have everyone celebrating St. Patrick's Day, then we welcome the arrival of spring. As the month closes, we celebrate Easter.

We hope all our members in the northeastern states survived the winter blast they got in February.

What a great time the Hungarian Arts Club provided for those attending its annual White Rose Ball in Dearborn, Mich. The presentation of debutantes is such a wonderful event to witness. This year, the Club honored WPA National Vice President-Fraternal Endre Csoman. He is so well deserving of this honor. There to share the moment of fame was his entire family. Thanks to Branch 18 for making us all feel so welcome.

The Youngstown American Hungarian Federation will be hosting a program to commemorate the events of the 1848 Hungarian War of Independence. The event will be held Sunday, March 17, at 2:30 p.m. at the Youngstown American Hungarian Club House, 2219 Donald Ave. The program will include traditional poems and songs. This year, a film will be shown in place of a guest speaker.

It's not too early to be making plans to attend the WPA Picnic-A Great Fraternal-Fest. Call Steve at 330-746-7704 or Frank at 330-549-2935 to make your reservations for our bus trip.

Congratulations to Alice Nagy on her recent retirement after teaching for 34 years. Happy days of traveling and relaxation are wished for you.

Frank Schauer Jr. recently came home to Columbiana, Ohio, for a short visit, but he had to hurry back to Florida as his daughter Rachael was home on holiday from her studies in Germany.

Best wishes to all those celebrating a birthday or anniversary this month.

Get well wishes to Irma Polgar, J.J. Tollas, Margie Sams and Daniel Stack (son of David and Gloria Pur-ton Stack) and Joan Mauerman.

Sincere condolences to all those who have recently lost a loved one.

Remember, bowling forms are due at the Home Office by April 12. We hope you plan on joining us for this fun-filled fraternal event.

For your life insurance and annuity needs, please call Kathy at 330-746-7704 or Alan at 330-482-9994.

Best wishes for a most blessed Easter season.

Congratulations, Endre Csoman, for being the guest of honor at the White Rose Ball. It was great seeing the Csoman family, especially Arlene. It was nice to see so many beautiful young women and handsome young men participating in this event again. It was also enjoyable spending time with our friends from Branch 18. So good seeing Doug out and about! Thanks to everyone for the great hospitality. The Rhapsody dinner was delicious, as usual.

A special "Happy Birthday" to branch members Mitzi Berei, our nephew Bob Healy III, Helen Henkel and Becky Williams. May you have many more. Extra special birthday wishes go to my husband Andy. Love you very much. Birthday wishes go out to all branch members celebrating their birthdays. We hope that you all are happy and healthy.

Please take a moment and pray for all our service men and women, especially those in harm's way.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to Elsie Radvany and family on the passing of Frank J. Radvany. He will be sorely missed. He was a true gentleman and fraternalist. God speed. Also, please remember all of our deceased members in your prayers.

Congratulations to Terry Anglin's grandson Johnny for being chosen to compete in the Math Competition at Freedom Middle School. I know that your grandmother is very proud of you.

Congratulations also go to Donovan McNelis for making the honor roll again. Way to go!

Get well wishes go out to Helen Henkel, who broke her shoulder. Hope you are doing much better. Our thoughts and prayers are with everyone who is experiencing health issues.

At our Christmas party, we held our annual election of officers. Elected were: Andrew McNelis, president; Gary Vamos, vice president; Marguerite McNelis, secretary-treasurer; and Rebecca Williams and Nicole Healy, auditors. We would like to thank you for having faith in us and our service to Branch 34. Köszönöm szépen!

Branch 89 Homestead, PA

by Lisa S. Toth-Maskarinec

Branch 89 hopes everyone is staying warm and safe during the winter season. To this cause, our branch is accepting donations of blankets for the homeless who reside under the Hot Metal Bridge on the Southside of Pittsburgh. The Rev. Judith Tobias, member of the First Hungarian Reformed Church of Homestead, is spearheading this drive on behalf of the church and Branch 89. If you wish to donate, please contact either Rev. Tobias at 412-926-0322 or Branch Coordinator Lisa Toth-Maskarinec at 412-872-5022. Or, you can drop off donations at the church.

Branch 89 is also collecting codes from Coke products. The codes we collect will be turned into points which can then be redeemed for various merchandise and prizes to be used at our various outings. Golf Outing Coordinator and Branch Auditor Mark S. Maskarinec said the product/points breakdown is as follows:

Bottle cap = 3 points

12 pack = 10 points 24 pack = 18 points

30 pack = 25 points.

These points add up fast for valuable prizes, such as gift certificates, tote bags, etc. We distributed many such items at the golf outing last year.

Anyone with any codes can email them to Mark at maskarinec1836@ comcast.net or mail them to 1836 Timothy Drive, West Mifflin, PA 15122. Every little bit helps.

Mark the date Saturday, Aug. 17, for the Second Annual Branch 89 Golf Outing. In keeping with the spirit of fraternalism and giving back to the community, all proceeds from this outing will benefit the First Hungarian Reformed Church of Homestead. The event will again be held at the Westwood Golf Club and promises to be an enjoyable event. We look forward to welcoming many of our branch members as well as the Officers and Board of Directors of William Penn Association.

Other upcoming events for our Branch include:

- a Join Hands Day project for the beautification and cleanup of the grounds and the parsonage of the First Hungarian Reformed Church of Homestead;
 - Cosmic Bowling in March;
 - a Night at the Casino; and
- a dinner at Dave & Buster's in Homestead.

In addition to our own golf outing, we're eagerly anticipating WPA's Annual Golf Tournament & Scholarship Days to be held this year at Quicksilver. What a fun time it promises to be.

For any of your life insurance needs, please continue to call Ruth Toth at 412-461-5812.

Branch 89 continues to thank William Penn Association and its officers for their continued support and wishes everyone a healthy year to come.

Please contact the branch coordinator if you'd like to see other activities, and we'll do our best to accommodate those requests.

Hope this month finds everyone in good health and spirits. The weather should be getting better and, hopefully, we won't have much more of the cold and snow.

Saint Patrick's Day is Sunday, March 17, followed by the first day of spring on Wednesday, March 20. Also, on Sunday, March 31, the celebration of Easter will take place. Hope everyone will be able to celebrate with family and friends. Don't forget to take time to check in on the elderly and shut-ins.

Our next meeting will be held on Tuesday, March 5, at 4:30 p.m. at Plank's Cafe, 743 Parsons Ave. We would like to see more members attend. We did have a few more at our last meeting. Hope to see you there.

On March 10 there will be a Soup & Learn Program at the Hungarian Reformed Church, located at 365 Woodrow Ave., Columbus. After the 10:00 a.m. church service, soup will be served beginning at 11:15 a.m. The program begins at approximately 11:40 a.m.

The topic will be "Louis Kossuth In America: His 1851-1852 tour and His Legacy." It will consist of a 2½-hour film made by Hungarian TV. Parts of the film were made in Columbus and includes interviews with local Hungarians. The program is presented by the Hungarian Culture Club.

On March 17, after the 10:00 a.m. service, the church will host a program about Louis Kossuth and the 1848 fight for independence, including a Hungarian dinner consisting of breaded pork, parsley potatoes, green beans, cucumber salad, Hungarian pastries and beverages. Cost is $10 per person. Take outs will be available. Reservations must be made by March 10 by calling Erzsi at 614-738-4415 or Marla at 740-654-0094.

We congratulate all those celebrating birthdays, anniversaries and additions to their families.

Get well wishes to all who have been ill or hospitalized. Hope all have a speedy recovery.

We also extend our sincere sym-

Branch 132 South Bend, IN

by the Branch Officers

On a snowy Saturday, Our Lady of Hungary Church held its gulyáslangalo dinner. John Burus reported that the gulyás dinner was delicious. Many people went to Mass and, because of the weather, took carry-out. Congratulations to the committee for a successful dinner.

Easter is early this year, so beware of the children who will be on Easter break. Happy Easter to all our friends and branch members.

We saw in the South Bend Tribune a picture of branch member Loren Vukovits who is a member of the John Glenn High School basketball team. It's good to see our young members active in school events. We saw Loren at our branch Christmas party. I'm sure Grandma Mary Lou and Grandpa Jack are proud of her.

Our condolences to the family of Irene Toth. May she rest in peace.

Branch 226 McKeesport, PA

We wish happy birthday to all Branch 226 members born in March as well as happy anniversary to the happy couples out there. Branch 226 member Julia Genes turned 97, and we wish her all the best.

Our deepest sympathy goes to the Roka family on the loss of their father who was a long-time member of our branch.

Our members are busy achieving their goals. WPA members Shelby Harris and Rylee Heyz, along with Kathryn Makay (a member of the WPA Magyar Folk Dancers), went to the JamFest Super Nationals Cheerleading Competition in Indianapolis with their squad from HotCheer All Stars in Elizabeth, Pa. Their team won first place in their division, won first place out of all Junior Level 3 and won the Level Three Grand Champion, beating 500 teams from the U.S. and Canada. Congrats to all of you--you did it!

This year is shaping up to be one busy year. Our branch donated a $50 sponsorship to McKeesport Tiger Baseball and another $50 to the McKeesport Intersection for the Join Hands for Hunger program.

In more exciting news, our branch will host its first Meet-and-Greet event for our members on Sunday, April 21, at 3:00 p.m. at the Free Hungarian Reformed Church of McKeesport's social hall. More info will be sent out to individual members. For more information and to make reservations, call Branch Coordinator Malvene Heyz at 412-751-1898. Please RSVP by Monday, April 1.

Our officers stay busy during the year with church activities, embroidery classes, coaching baseball, Hungarian folk dancing, etc., but want to share more with you at this Meetand-Greet event. Bring your children to this family-friendly event.

Our branch is quite large, and, in order to keep everyone on the same page, we ask that you call Branch Coordinator Malvene to notify her of address changes or deaths in your family. This way, our branch will stay up to date with info and the status of our members.

Best wishes for a Blessed Easter!

February and all its snow is gone for good. Now, we are hoping for an early spring and its promise of new life.

With spring's promise, isn't it appropriate that we celebrate Easter at this time and its promise of renewed life? Happy Easter and may the good Lord bless you and your family and continue to bless William Penn Association.

We thoroughly enjoyed the White Rose Ball in Michigan this year. The young ladies were beautiful in their white gowns as they were presented to the large audience at the Marriott Dearborn Inn Ballroom. The debutantes were escorted by young gentlemen as they performed the palotás, a formal traditional Hungarian dance. WPA National Vice President-Fraternal Endre Csoman

Branch 296 Springdale, PA

by Mary A. Kelly-Lovasz

Ahhhh, the 'madness' that is March! This month comes in like a lion and goes out like a lamb. And, in some instances, it's the other way around. This is a tricky month if you live in a region like ours. One day we have that hopeful glimmer of the crocus peaking through the ground, and the next day there could be a snowstorm bearing down on us. This kind of stuff just happens...we have no control over it.

March brings us back to Daylight Savings Time on March 10 (hooray for more sunlight!), and the feast day of Saint Patrick on the 17th. Yes, I will wear my Kelly green that day.

Two days later on the 19th, the NCAA Division 1 Men's Basketball Championship--a.k.a. "March Madness"--begins. This is the day that I lose all communication with my husband, until the day after the Final Four. (Editor's note: Not true!)

Spring officially begins on the 20th (look for the little crocus peeking out of the ground); Passover begins on the 25th; and the month culminates with Easter Sunday on the 31st. Wow, what a month!

And a date that I've saved for last, but certainly not least, is Branch 296's first monthly meeting of 2013 on March 14...weather permitting, of course. Remember we'll meet at King's Restaurant in New Kensington at 7:00 p.m.

Before our meeting, please think about a project for Join Hands Day and we can discuss everyone's ideas. We very much look forward to seeing you and maybe further discussing the "madness of March."

Happy birthday and anniversary wishes go out to our members celebrating a special day this month. And, we remember and pray for our dearly departed members and for their loved ones.

Please feel free to contact me with your questions or comments at 274-274-5318 or at makelly367@verizon. net. For your insurance and annuity needs, please contact our friendly and knowledgeable agent, Noreen Fritz, FIC, LUTCF at 412-821-1837 or noreenbunny.fritz@verizon.net.

I can't believe it's March already. March is the month that signals the end of winter and ushers in the spring season. Officially, spring arrives on March 20. All of us, I'm sure, are anxious to have this winter over with and eagerly await the first signs of new life breaking through the ground.

It's also the time that many of WPA's fraternal activities will begin. The bowling tournament on May 4 will be here soon. This promises to be a fun, fraternal event--one you won't want to miss. Everyone who attended last year's tournament had a great time. The Meadows Racetrack & Casino will be celebrating the Kentucky Derby that weekend, so many things are planned by the Casino that our guests will be able to participate in. You can find information on the tournament elsewhere in this issue of William Penn Life.

Also coming up are Join Hands Day on May 4, the Annual Golf Tournament & Scholarship Days on July 19 and 20; the Hungarian Heritage Experience on Aug. 4 to 10; the WPA Picnic-A Great Fraternal-Fest at Scenic View on Sept. 7; and the WPA-sponsored trip to Hungary in September. Since the official Join Hands Day falls on the same day as our bowling tournament, many branches are postponing their Join Hands Day activities for some time later. Please try to support as many WPA fraternal functions as possible. Only with your participation can WPA continue to offer so many fraternal activities to our members.

Happy birthday to all those celebrating a birthday in March. May you have many more and may all of them be healthy.

Don't forget to turn the clocks ahead one hour on March 10.

Easter falls on March 31 this year. Happy Easter to all.

Branch 400 Charlotte, NC

by Cindy Smith

Branch 400 has been making an impact in the Charlotte area this past holiday season. We are getting our name out in the community by helping some of our local organizations.

During the month of December, Branch 400 helped two local nonprofit organizations whose services are greatly needed in our community.

One was the Charlotte Rescue Mission, a local charity helping those who have, for various reasons, found themselves homeless. The mission has numerous needs and offers help to those who are less fortunate.

The other organization we supported was Urban Restoration. This organization is striving to help feed and clothe families who, due to tough economic times, have more going out of their budget than coming in.

We hope that our branch can continue to encourage and help these organizations in the future.

Puzzle Contest #93 with Lizzy Cseh

Great Magyar-American Cookbooks

As Tibor Jr. stated in his column this month, I collect cookbooks. Of course, I concentrate on collecting such documents that are Hungarian in nature. Like a squirrel in November stashing her acorns, I have stashes of cookbooks everywhere in my home. Like that squirrel, I just seem to forget where I have them all. My last count tallied 31. There are several more hiding somewhere in the midst of the Cseh Család Compound. If I could only find them. Summer break begins in about two months. Maybe then, will I find time to rediscover my old friends.

Just as with my Barbie collection, I love all my books dealing in culinary arts. I have a propensity to gravitate towards cookbooks with photos, hand-scribed drawings, explanations of our history/culture and celebrity written transcriptions.

Surprisingly, I own no Magyar cookbooks from the Pittsburgh area (other than two WPA editions), Detroit area, New Jersey region or Metro Chicago. Down the road, I hope to acquire books from those areas as well.

If you would like to learn more details and information concerning my current list of Magyar-American cookbooks, send me an email at: SilverKing I 937@yahoo.com When sending me an email request, please include in the subject area box, "Wordsearch Cookbook." We receive a lot of spam and not knowing your web address with no subject identifier can be a risky proposition when considering website security.

This wordsearch has 20 clues. Each clue is either the cookbook's title, the author's name, the church or organization which published the book or the city from which the book was published. Good Luck and Boldog Húsvéti Ünnepeket!

Annual Bowling Tournament

A Fun Weekend for the Entire Family

embers and friends of WPA are invited to join us for a weekend of family fun during our Annual Bowling Tournament, Friday and Saturday, May 3 and 4, at The Meadows Racetrack & Casino in Washington, Pa., just south of Pittsburgh.

While folks of all ages are welcome, we would especially love to see more older teens and young adults participate. So, take note: All members and non-members ages 16 to 25 can bowl FREE! That includes three games of bowling plus a continental breakfast...at no charge!

In addition, all children and teens up to age 15 can bowl for only $5 and all adults ages 26 and above can bowl for just $20. Again, that price includes three games and a continental breakfast.

After the adult and juvenile bowling events are concluded, all members and guests are welcome to share in a banquet, beginning at approximately 1:00 p.m. Saturday. The price of the buffet is as follows:

- $30 for all adults ages 16 to 25;
- $30 for adult life benefit members ages 26 and above;
- $40 for non-members ages 26 and above;
- $10 for all teens ages 12 to 15;
- Free for all children ages 11 and under.

Accommodations will be at the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel Pittsburgh-Meadow Lands, which is within walking distance of the casino. WPA's special room rate for the weekend is $119 per night (double occupancy). For room reservations, call the DoubleTree at 724-222-6200 or go online at www.pittsburghmeadowlands.doubletree.com. Use the group code "WPA" to ensure you receive our special rate. Deadline for hotel reservations is 3:00 p.m., Wednesday, April 10.

As bowlers and guests arrive Friday, May 3, they are welcome to visit our reception room where they can enjoy soft drinks and pastries. Everyone will be free to spend the evening enjoying all the exciting games and amenities of The Meadows or shopping at the nearby Tanger Outlets.

Bowling will be held Saturday, May 4, at Meadows Lanes, a state-of-the-art bowling facility located within The Meadows, beginning at approximately 9:00 a.m. Bowlers are welcome to arrive at the lanes at 8:00 a.m. to enjoy a continental breakfast. Once bowling starts, bowlers are also invited to enjoy an open bar.

Once again, this year's tournament will be a non-competitive event with all the focus to be placed on having FUN!

Members and guests ages 16 and above are invited to participate in the adult event. In this event, four bowlers will be assigned to each lane. Each bowler will bowl three (3) games. Prizes will be awarded to the top three bowlers among both men and women and to the top three teams.

Bowlers will also have the chance to win some special prizes during the event. Anyone bowling a perfect 300 game during the event will win a $2,000 five-year WPA annuity.

There will also be a Lucky Strike Contest. During each of the three games, the names of one man and one woman bowler will be randomly selected. If either bowls a strike during the frame after their name is announced, he or she will win $25. If neither wins, the prize will be added to the next game. Plus, there will be a special 50/50 raffle.

Children and teens ages 15 and under are invited to participate in their own special Juvenile Fun Event. Our young bowlers will bowl on lanes separate from the adults and will enjoy pizza and soft drinks.

The number of adult bowlers will be limited to 80, so please register as soon as possible. And watch for more information in next month's William Penn Life.

In Memoriam

SISTER M. EDITH NEMETH

ELIZABETH TWP., PA -- The Association was saddened by the death of Sister M. Edith Nemeth, SDR. Sister Edith, 81, died Jan. 13, 2013, in Divine Redeemer Motherhouse, Elizabeth Township.

She served for 58 years as a Sister of the Divine Redeemer and was a gifted artist and art instructor. Her paintings were displayed throughout the United States and Europe, and she served as director of Penn View Art Center in Elizabeth for 32 years until retiring in 2008.

She was also a writer and author, her best known work being her autobiography--My Life in Spinach Green: Life of a War-Torn Family, the Némeths--which recounted her life in Hungary and her family's struggle for freedom.

She was born Dec. 29, 1931, in Cegled, Hungary, the daughter of the late Louis and Maria (Konya) Nemeth. The family arrived in America in March 1949.

She joined the Sisters of the Divine Redemer in 1954. She earned bachelor's degrees from both Madaille College and Carnegie Mellon University and a master of fine arts degree from CMU.

She was extremely proud of her Hungarian heritage and created laces, prints and tapestries in the Hungarian tradition.

In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her two brothers, Louis and Béla, and her sister, Magda Dulk.

She is survived by her sisters-in-law, Nancy Nemeth and Iboly Nemeth; and nieces and nephews.

A Mass of Christian burial was celebrated Jan. 18 in Divine Redeemer Chapel. Burial was in Divine Redeemer Cemetery.

May she rest in peace. We ask you to pray for the eternal rest of Sister Edith and all our recently departed members listed below:
