Campaign for UKRAINE

in partnership with Brother's Brother Foundation

The stories and images emerging from Ukraine call to mind stories and images from the not-too-distant past, when the former Soviet Union brought its hammer down on people who dared to defy it. The war in Ukraine serves as a frightening reminder of what happened in Hungary in 1956, when so many were forced to flee their homeland in search of peace and freedom.

Today, millions of Ukrainians--and the 150,000 Hungarians living in western Ukraine are desperately seeking that same peace and freedom. Unfortunately, the vast majority had precious little time to plan their escape, taking with them only what they could carry, as they headed to safer land and an uncertain future. This latest group of war flung refugees needs help.

As fraternalists, we are compelled to offer that help. That is why William Penn Association--through its William Penn Association Foundation, Inc.--is partnering with Brother's Brother Foundation to get urgently needed aid to the people of Ukraine. Every dollar you donate will be matched by William Penn Association, up to a total of $10,000, thus doubling the impact of your contribution. Brother's Brother has more than 60 years of experience in bridging the gap between aid and sustainability by supporting localized programs and providing essential resources in the areas of healthcare, infrastructure, disaster response, and education. They will make sure your donations fulfill the more urgent needs of those greatest in need.

Fill out the form below and send it to us with your tax-deductible donation. Please, do it today. Time is of the essence. On behalf of the refugees seeking peace and freedom, we thank you.

The Fraternal Advantage: 7 years later

This month marks my seven-year anniversary with William Penn Association, and I wanted to reflect on some of my experiences as well as what we call the “fraternal advantages” I have witnessed during my tenure here. Having spent the majority of my 44-year insurance career with “commercial” insurance companies, I am often asked to discuss the differences between commercial insurance companies and fraternal benefit societies.

To review a few basic differences, there are three different types of life insurance carriers: stock companies, which are owned by stockholders; mutual companies, which are owned by the policyholders; and fraternal benefit societies, which are typically not-for-profit organizations that are organized and carried on solely for the benefit of their membership.

Fraternal benefit societies were developed in the mid-to-late-1800s as a way for people--many of them immigrants--to work and associate with others who shared similar ethnic, religious and/or cultural backgrounds. These not-for-profit organizations provided financial aid to many individuals and families. Those benefits include cash payments for death, disability and illness, but also incorporated a “lodge system” where families could meet for various social, ethnic and charitable events.

These societies and the benefits that they provide continue to this day. According to the American Fraternal Alliance, fraternal benefit societies raised more than $17 million in the wake of the 9/11 attacks and more than $17 million following hurricane Katrina. The AFA also notes that volunteerism among fraternal benefit societies represents nearly 100 million hours per year, worth an estimated $1.8 billion annually, and the total value of other fraternal benefits exceeds $400 million each year.

All insurance companies--stock, mutual and fraternal--offer life insurance and annuities to the general public. When a client purchases a policy or certificate from any of the three types of companies, they’re receiving something of value--a certain amount of insurance for a certain amount of premium, or a certain interest rate on an annuity.

But, do they receive other benefits, such as invitations to attend picnics, dinners, golf outings, baseball games or trips to foreign lands? Will the stock or mutual company provide benefits to your newborn, orphaned child or graduating high school senior? Do they provide scholarships to qualifying members to help offset the cost of obtaining a post-secondary education? These are just a few of the benefits that I have personally witnessed since becoming an employee and member of WPA. These are what we call “fraternal advantages.”

I can still recall attending a picnic shortly after starting in my new position with WPA. A friend was congratulating me on my new position and asked what company I was now working for. When I mentioned William Penn Association, another attendee turned to me and said, “Oh wait! You’re with that scholarship company!?” She mentioned that her mother had purchased “some kind of policy” on her children that qualified them for college scholarships. She went on to say that WPA had, in fact, provided $2,000 for each of her four children to attend four years of college. That’s a total of $8,000 in scholarship funds paid to one member family. I have to say that this made me feel good about my decision to join William Penn Association.

I spent a great deal of my career with one of the largest insurance companies in the world that, despite their size, didn’t give anywhere near the number or amount of scholarships given annually by William Penn Association and other fraternal organizations. As a stock company, they were most concerned about shareholder value and returns to the stockholders, not their insured members. This is a fraternal advantage.

Here is the story of another fraternal advantage that I have personally witnessed since joining WPA:

A few years back, I was made aware of a young member who purchased a life certificate and paid his first annual premium. Within nine months of purchasing his certificate, this young, healthy adult developed an aggressive form of cancer. Unfortunately, he became so sick that he was unable to keep his job, and the bills started to pile up. Mixed in with those bills was his annual premium notice from WPA. When he passed away, his beneficiary contacted our Home Office to report the death, only to be told that his coverage had lapsed due to non-payment of the premium. Despite his non-payment, his coverage was still in force due to the “non-forfeiture” clause in his certificate. We were able to pay the claim. This news came as a huge relief to the grieving young widow.

As I mentioned in my opening paragraph, I have spent the majority of my career with commercial companies, both stock and mutual, and have never seen a policy or certificate that extended coverage after only one annual premium had been paid. This is a fraternal advantage.

And, here’s one more commercial vs. fraternal difference that I have noticed:

Have you ever tried calling one of the large commercial insurance companies with the hopes of speaking to an actual person? One of the things that impressed me most after joining WPA is the fact that, once you direct your call to the proper department, you are connected to one of our employees, not a virtual assistant. Members can call the Home Office and talk with a representative from sales, underwriting, billing, claims, membership services or publications office to have their questions and concerns handled personally and confidentially. This is a fraternal advantage.

Now, we’d like to announce a new fraternal advantage:

WPA is pleased to announce that we are offering an initial $10 deposit on a 9-year non-qualified annuity for each new juvenile life member that is approved for a juvenile life certificate after January 1, 2022. This offer is valid for any of our juvenile insurance plans (term or whole life) and is only available for juvenile issue ages 0 to 15. The annuity application and offer acceptance letter must accompany the application for life insurance and will only be offered one time. Once the annuity certificate is issued, additional deposits can be made at any time. Call your agent or our Home Office for the details of this exciting new offer.

As you can see, there are many benefits to being a member of a fraternal benefit society. If you are reading this, you most likely are already a member and enjoying the benefits of membership.

But, what about your friends and family? Did you know that you get a referral fee for recommending William Penn Association to your friends and family? We pay thousands of dollars each year to members who recommend new members to WPA. See the back panel of this edition for the details of the Recommender program or call your WPA agent. Don’t have an agent? Call the Home Office and we’ll be happy to help. Or, simply complete the Recommender form and send it to the Home Office, and we’ll take it from there. Then, your friends and family will also see the fraternal advantage!

Until next time, we wish all mothers a Happy Mother’s Day.

Come grow with us

William Penn Association is looking to grow and expand its reach in current and possibly new markets. To do this, we are seeking to add highly motivated agents to our list of over 800 existing agents. WPA currently writes insurance and annuity products in 20 states – CA, CT, DE, FL, IL, IN, KY, MD, MA, MI, MO, NC, NE, NJ, NY, OH, PA, VA, WV and WI – and in DC. To grow, we need both full-time and part-time agents. WPA has much to offer our members and the agents who write for us. If you are interested in an opportunity to grow with us, then contact Bob Bisceglia at 412-231-2979, ext.134. Thank you.

A new look at an old Take

Four years ago, I wrote a column about the efforts of the residents of my ancestral village of Csót, Veszprém, Hungary to preserve a small museum and graveyard that commemorates prisoners-of-war from World War I, a conflict that occurred one hundred years ago. War has now returned to the European continent, and has come to Hungary's doorstep. Since my last Take, the Russian military has, without provocation, invaded Ukraine, which shares a border with Hungary. These new circumstances seem to make what I wrote back in May 2018 relevant again and worth reflecting on during this month of May, when our calendar bursts with the warm days of spring and the contemplative hours of Memorial Day here in the United States.

A few years back while visiting cousins in Hungary, my family was driven on a dirt back road only a minute east of Csót on Route 832. My cousin Géza's BMW bounced like an overinflated soccer ball as we meandered up a one-lane road, choked on both sides by a forest of tall acacia trees. We pulled into a grove of overgrown beech trees, wild vines and brown grass. My cousins led us 50 yards to what appeared to be a very neglected graveyard of several hundred headstones. As we got closer, a weathered sign written in Hungarian lay parallel to the ground. It became clear that this was a cemetery for prisoners of war from World War I. Géza explained that this was the last part of what was left of a huge complex that housed thousands of Russian, Romanian and Serbian POWs that were captured by Austria-Hungary on the Italian and Eastern Fronts. Most of the headstones were either damaged, missing or upended by either Mother Nature or senseless vandalism.

The cemetery was divided by country of origin, and a few markers bore the names of women. Several stones bore uniquely Hungarian names, such as István, János or Imre. Initially I was a bit confused until I realized that several countries that were on the Entente side also had large Hungarian populations (Romania and Serbia, for example).

As we slowly ambled back to the car, I noticed a few tombstones depicting French and English sounding names. I thought that was rather odd since France and England fought on the Western Front and Hungary battled hundreds of miles to the east and south. I wanted to explore more, but the sun was about to set and the treacherous drive back to a blacktop roadway was best done in the daylight.

The next day, cousins Olgi, Judit, and Ándrás I took us to a small museum in town that housed information about the POW camp. There were a hundred or so artifacts on display. A dozen or so historical photographs helped to explain what life was like in close quarters.

Of the 16 or so war camps located in Hungary, most were destroyed after WWI. A few campsites have a small sign explaining that the premises were once POW camps there, but other than that, details about those camps are lost to history. I recall discussing with my siblings and parents that if something was not done soon to repair and clean up the graveyard, the only remaining part of what was left of the local camp ruins would be lost.

Unlike other POW camps, Csót remained open long past the end of WWI, as it had a three-part purpose. From 1915 to 1918, it was used to imprison mostly Russian, Polish, Serbian and Italian soldiers. In 1918 and 1919, the camp held soldiers running away from the Romanian Royal Army during the Hungarian-Romanian War. From late 1919 to 1923, the Csót camp was a sort of halfway house for returning soldiers making their way back from the Italian Front, as most were of Russian origin.

2022 Note: I wonder how many “Russian” soldiers actually came from other countries and ethnicities within the old Russian Empire. As we have seen, remembering, or mis-remembering, the history of these ancient cultures and nations has factored prominently into the current conflict in Ukraine. How many Ukrainian or Baltic soldiers were imprisoned in the Csót camp? I do not know.

When considering how severe the conditions of POW camps were, the Csót facility was thought by some to be one of the best for living conditions. In 1961, 15 former Csót Tábor POWs were interviewed, and their near consensus was that their confinement time was generally a bearable experience. Within the prison itself, there were dozens of elevated barracks, a well-equipped mess hall, a post office, an officer’s casino and a cinema building.

Escaping was usually a minor problem as most of the prisoners considered their incarceration a similar, if not better, alternative to what they experienced as soldiers in the field or even what was available back at home. Still, the size of the graveyard showed me that no matter how good conditions were relatively-speaking, there was still a great risk of illness, injury and death in this camp.

2022 Note: Unlike modern militaries in the West, soldiers in World War I were conscripts, and, in the case of the Russian Empire, poorly trained and equipped—some men went into battle with broomsticks or spears. The lack of preparation on part of the Russian Empire boggles the mind!

Once the final wave of returning soldiers was processed and mustered out, the camp closed and was dismantled by the townsfolk. Only the burial ground remained, but by and large, it was not kept up except for a one-time repair to erect headstones that were lying flat due to weather and seasonal shifts and settling of the ground. In 2017, a grant was presented to the town of Csót to be used not only to repair but also add structures and informational plaques explaining the significance of that internment center.

May this example remind us of the importance of remembering and honoring our own fallen soldiers, sailors, marines, airmen and coast guardsmen. Their sacrifice should never be forgotten, and this effort by Csót demonstrates the historical and civic importance of paying respects and honoring those Americans who gave their lives for our freedoms.

Historian George Santayana observed that those who do not learn their history are doomed to repeat it. Allow me to add that those who misunderstand history may doom others to repeat history as well. In this time to remember our nation’s war dead, let us also ponder the nature of sacrifice and courage, and how the passage of time may make old conflicts and struggles new again.

On the side

Fáradjon be a Magyar Konyhába! So, here we are through the winter months, enjoying springtime and the many pleasures it offers, including warmer weather and longer days to enjoy more of the outdoors. Holy Week, along with Easter Sunday, has come and gone but is not forgotten.

When I was growing up in New Brunswick, NJ, all the family, including my grandparents, would go to church on Easter Sunday then return home for a delicious feast that my mother and grandmother had prepared. Lamb, ham, beef or a poultry dish would be the highlight of the meal.

Of course, we always had great side dishes that would compliment everything on the table. Remember: every delectable entrée deserves a supporting cast for all to enjoy. All side dishes should be a commendation to bring the whole meal together, to give added flavor and eye appeal to stir up one's appetite. Keeping that in mind, the basic principle of any meal is to provide great food and culinary atmosphere so all may have a wonderful culinary adventure.

In my last article, I wrote about how food should break down to 55% flavor and 45% aroma. Whether it be Easter dinner, Thanksgiving or just plain Sunday dinner after church, the 55/45 rule will provide a good foundation lauded by the best side dish.

So, here are some side dishes you may consider to complete your next family feast.

Scalloped Potatoes au Gratin consists of thinly sliced potatoes with a hearty gratin sauce made of shredded cheddar cheese and half & half (or heavy cream). The dish is made by alternating layers of potatoes and cheese, then covering the whole dish with the dairy liquid. Instead of cheddar, why not try another flavored cheese, such as Pepper Jack, then top the dish off with flavored breadcrumbs for added flavor?

One of my favorites for a vegetable is Brussels Sprouts tossed lightly in vegetable oil then roasted and topped with walnut pieces and maple syrup.

For a very tasty starch, I would suggest Rice Pilaf with fresh herbs or bits of cooked veggies, such as carrots, sweet onions, red peppers, and celery.

On a sweeter note, for a side that goes with any meat dish I would suggest a Chutney, a spicy condiment made of fruits or veggies with vinegar and other spicy ingredients.

Other accompaniments for your meat dishes you could try are Coulis, a thin sauce made from fruits or vegetables usually poured over any meat entrée, or Relish, a savory condiment eaten with plain food to add intense flavor.

In any case, the choices are many, but I am sharing the most popular side dishes that will raise the level of any dinner from "okay" to "gourmet." Enjoy the recipes for a Sunday dinner, a weeknight meal or any special occasion.

Next time, I will have some great ideas for a graduation party on the patio. Have a great month.

Jó étvágyat! (Enjoy your meal!)

Scalloped Potatoes au Gratin

4 pounds potatoes, peeled & cut into ¼-inch slices
 2 tablespoons butter, melted
 3 cups half & half or heavy cream
 1½ cups Swiss or cheddar cheese, grated
 Salt & pepper, to taste

Preheat the oven to 375°F.

In a baking dish, pour the butter into the bottom, then layer potatoes and season with salt and pepper, top with a portion of the grated cheese. Continue layering potatoes then cheese to fill the baking dish, saving some cheese for the topping.

Pour in the half & half (or heavy cream) which when baked will make the gratin sauce, then cover dish with aluminum foil.

Place in the oven and bake until the potatoes are tender, and the liquid is simmering about 45 to 60 minutes.

Remove foil and let bake another 5 minutes to get the top golden brown.

Remove from oven and serve with your favorite entrée.

Roasted Brussels Sprouts with Maple Syrup & Toasted Walnuts

1½ pounds Brussels sprouts
 3 tablespoons vegetable oil
 ½ teaspoon salt
 ¼ teaspoon black pepper
 ½ cup walnut pieces, toasted
 ¼ cup maple syrup

Preheat oven to 375°F.

Trim stems of sprouts, remove any wilted outer leaves, then cut sprouts in half and place in a mixing bowl. Add the oil, salt, pepper and toss to coat the sprouts.

On a baking sheet, spread the sprouts in a single layer.

On a smaller sheet spread the walnut pieces. Place the walnuts in the oven and roast the walnuts to toast, about 5 minutes, then remove from oven and set aside.

Place the sprouts in the oven and roast the sprouts for 15 minutes until the edges turn golden brown, then remove from oven and place in an oven-proof serving dish.

Drizzle with the maple syrup, add the toasted walnuts, then blend evenly.

Serve hot with your chosen entrée.

Hungarian Rice Pilaf

2 tablespoons butter
 ½ cup csiga noodles
 ½ cup minced onions
 2 medium garlic cloves, mince
 ½ cup white rice
 2 cups chicken broth
 Salt & pepper, to taste
 1 teaspoon sweet paprika
 1 tablespoon parsley, chopped

Melt the butter in a skillet over medium heat; add the csiga and onions, cooking until pasta is golden brown and onion is soft.

Add the garlic and cook one more minute. Add the rice and chicken broth, then turn heat to high and bring to a boil. Reduce heat to medium, cover the pot and simmer 20 to 25 minutes until liquid is absorbed and the rice is tender.

Remove from heat, stir, adjust taste with salt & pepper, then garnish with sweet paprika and chopped parsley.

Serve hot with the entrée.

Apple Chutney

½ cup honey
 ¾ cup apple cider vinegar
 2 cups apples, peeled & diced
 ¼ teaspoon ginger, minced
 ¼ teaspoon sweet paprika
 1 garlic clove, minced
 ¾ tablespoon yellow mustard seeds
 ½ tablespoon salt
 ⅓ cup golden raisins

In a saucepan, simmer the honey and vinegar for 10 minutes. Add the apples and all other ingredients, then simmer, uncovered for 25 to 45 minutes.

When chutney starts to thicken, taste and adjust flavor: add more honey if too bland; or add more vinegar if too sweet.

Chill the chutney until ready to serve with your meal.

This will keep in the refrigerator for 7 days.

Serve with your favorite entrée.

A neighborly treat

May is here and with it comes warmer weather. One of our favorite things to do in warm weather is to invite our neighbors over for a cookout. You say you don't know your neighbors? Well, now is the time to meet them! And while the grown-ups handle the grill, you can be in the kitchen making a special treat for your family and neighbors to enjoy: cereal bars. This recipe isn't too difficult and doesn't require you to use the oven, and you probably have all the ingredients you need in your home already. So, let's get started!

What you need

- ½ cup smooth peanut butter or almond butter or sunflower seed butter
- ½ cup honey (or molasses, whatever you have on hand)
- 3½ cups "O" cereal (like Cheerios Brand)
- ½ teaspoon vanilla extract, optional
- Parchment paper

What You Do

- Line an 8x8-inch baking pan with parchment paper, leaving a 2-inch overhang on two sides. This will make it easier to lift the bars out of the pan when they're done cooling off.
- Put the peanut butter and honey in a large microwave-safe bowl. Warm in the microwave for 15-30 seconds, or until mixture is easy to stir. Stir together to combine.
- Add the cereal (and optional vanilla) to the bowl. Stir gently, but thoroughly, using a wooden spoon or spatula. It may take a minute or two to get the cereal coated evenly.
- Spread the mixture onto the prepared baking pan, making sure it fills the pan from end to end and into all four corners. Press down firmly with parchment paper so that they stick together (and not on your hands).
- Place the pan in your refrigerator and let chill for at least one hour.
- Remove from the fridge; lift out using the parchment paper, and place on a cutting board.
- Slice into bars and wrap each bar in plastic wrap (optional); and store in an airtight container in the fridge. Serve cold.

TIPS: These bars hold together best when stored in the fridge and will store for up to 5 days in the fridge. Instead of a baking pan, you can scoop the mixture into mini muffin tins. (No cutting required and perfect size for toddlers.) For added flair, drizzle melted chocolate or stir in chocolate chips to turn these from basic to extra!

Our thanks to www.iheartnaptime.net for this great and fun idea!

Share photos of your treats on Facebook @WPALife & Twitter #wpalife.

We hope everyone had a very blessed Easter and a delightful spring. It is nice to see the new flowers that I planted in 2021 are coming up to greet the sunshine in 2022.

Please continue to pray for the people of Ukraine and the many peoples of Europe who are fighting for their basic freedoms and democracy, which can be lost very quickly.

Hungary shares part of its eastern border with Ukraine, and hundreds of thousands of women and children have sought refuge in Hungary. Please support the refugees of Ukraine as they try to survive during this crisis. They have fled their homeland and are trying to hold on for those family members who could not leave.

William Penn Association is conducting a matching funds campaign to aid the people of Ukraine. More details about this campaign can be found elsewhere in this issue. Please donate what you can to help the refugees.

High school and college graduations will be here soon. Best wishes to all the seniors planning the next chapter of their lives.

To the parents of our WPA students who will soon be growing out of their juvenile policies, have your children sign up for their adult policies. As parents, you need to set the example and sign up for your own William Penn Association life insurance policy. Your own children and grandchildren will be the recipients of your generosity. Contact your WPA Sales Representative today to enroll.

Please continue to support the WPFA Scholarship Foundation. Every dollar received makes a difference to our students. They are counting on you! WPA is counting on you, too!

NEXT DEADLINE

Please support them in 2022 by either safely attending their events or making a monetary donation. Do not forget the many small businesses which desperately need your patronage in order to continue their existence during these difficult times.

We remember those WPA members who have passed away or may have recently lost a loved one. May those WPA members who are not with us, rest in peace.

Get well wishes are being sent to all of our Branch 14 members and WPA members, as well as our friends, who might be feeling under the weather, dealing with health issues or recovering from a surgery.

We send special wishes to WPA members JoAnne Sedensky, Tom Savitski, Tamás Markovits, Betty Hartman, Ernie Sarosi and Violet Sarosi. Feel better soon. Please keep all of our WPA members in your prayers and thoughts.

who are celebrating a May birthday and/or anniversary. May you have many more celebrations!

Be safe, stay healthy and remember to keep in touch with someone you haven't seen or talked to in a long time. It is so good to have contact, say "Hi" and catch up on how everyone is doing. Plan a visit, if allowed.

Remember those who are in hospitals, rehabilitation facilities, nursing homes and extended care facilities. Everyone loves to receive cards, notes, telephone calls and the opportunity to hear from family and friends. Don't forget them.

Branch 19 New Brunswick, NJ

I hope you all enjoyed an Easter holiday filled with hope and inspiration.

On March 26, our branch officers, in cooperation with the Bayard Street Presbyterian Church, sponsored a free food and flea market program for the New Brunswick community. More than 150 people each received two bags of non-perishable groceries and free cooked hot dogs and hamburgers.

The free flea market gave away clothing, coats, dinnerware, kitchen items, glassware, stuffed animals, toys and games and much more.

A generous patron donated funds which allowed another volunteer to buy items used to fill 100 Easter baskets. The baskets were then distributed to 100 children.

We wish you all the best as we continue to enjoy spring.

Branch 26 Sharon, PA

By Gerry Davenport

We hope all members had a very blessed and happy Easter.

Our branch donated to a local food bank to help families in need.

We also took part in the WPA Easter Basket program. Five gift cards were given to St. Peter and Paul Church and School to distribute to families with children to help with Easter basket goodies. The gift cards were greatly appreciated.

Mother's Day is coming up. Don't forget to celebrate your mom. Whether your mom is near, far, or in heaven, a phone call or a prayer is so little but speaks volumes. All that we are, we owe to our mothers.

We send good wishes to all members celebrating an upcoming birthday or anniversary.

With all the prayers that we send out, pray for peace.

Branch 28 Youngstown, OH

Happy spring. So nice to see the colorful flowers appearing.

As part of the WPA Join Hands Against Hunger program, Branch 28 made a monetary donation to the Youngstown Community Kitchen. Several members volunteered there to help serve breakfast and lunches to the homeless or those in need of a meal.

Welcome home to Alan Szabo and his family, who spent time in Florida.

May is the month to honor all those wonderful mothers. We also remember to give honor to all those who served our country and have left this earthly world.

Hoping all our golfers have their clubs cleaned up and can spend the day at Kensington Golf Club in Canfield, Ohio on June 25. More information and a registration form can be found in this issue.

Remember that the application deadline for this year's WPA scholarship grants is quickly approaching--May 27.

Congratulations to all those receiving high school diplomas this year. So many new adventures are waiting for you.

Thoughts with great concern are shared by so many of us for so many reasons, but I believe the most serious are for the conflict occurring in Ukraine and continuing COVID issues. We can continue to support those in need and take precautions in all we do.

What a nice surprise to learn of Becky Williams' wedding. Congrats!

Best wishes to all those celebrating birthdays, especially Branch President Frank Schauer and Branch Vice President Sandor Tollas.

Get well wishes to everyone feeling under the weather. Special healing thoughts go out to Margie Sams, Frank Schauer, John Dankovich, Irene Devlin, Tina Nemeth, Barbara Stack, Barbara House and Ernie Sarosi.

Sincere sympathy is extended to all those who have recently lost a loved one.

Have questions about your life insurance or annuities? Please call either Alan at 330-482-9994 or Kathy at 330-746-7704.

Our hearts and prayers go out to the people of Ukraine. Our branch will be making a donation to WPA's Campaign for Ukraine.

In preparation for Memorial Day, Branch 34 and our local VFW and American Legion will again volunteer to place flags on Veterans' graves at Calvary Cemetery. God bless our veterans.

Happy and healthy birthday wishes to everyone celebrating their birthdays in May, especially my sister-in-law Roseann Vamos. Also, happy anniversary wishes to my brother and sister-in-law and everyone celebrating a special event. Many, many more.

Wow! Every day is nicer and nicer! Spring flowers and May showers... happy springtime to all members and their families.

A big "thank you" to all our members. Branch officer Cheryl Stadler and her husband Gil picked up from my garage more than 20 large trash bags filled with empty plastic grocery bags collected by you, our members. These will make several mats for the homeless. Please continue to save your clean grocery bags, and when ready, drop them off at my garage. Contact me at either mtd13ekd@att.net or 330-604-1264.

Branch 44 continues to support our local first responders. During April, snacks and drinks were provided to the Suffield (OH) Fire Department, including pretzels, Goldfish crackers, Oreo cookies, peppermint sticks, water, tea and coffee. Branch officer Kim Confer, with help from her daughters and fellow branch members Sophie and Izzy, delivered the donated items.

Our branch also participated in WPA's Join Hands Against Hunger campaign, providing a food basket to the Manna From Heaven food bank in Akron, OH.

A second food basket is being prepared for delivery this month. We may prepare several baskets as we have many food items that were donated by members during our family holiday party in Decem-

On March 20, branch members gathered at St. Stephen's Roman Catholic Magyar Church in Passaic for a Mass in remembrance of deceased branch members.

The branch also held a food drive, collecting 22 bags of groceries to stock the shelves of the St. Vincent de Paul food pantry that serves the community of Long Hill Township and beyond. The pantry's food supply is often depleted, so the generosity of Branch 51 members truly helps to make a difference in the lives of others.

With the assistance of the pastor of St. Stephen's Church, the branch made a financial contribution to Caritas Hungary, the official aid organization of the Catholic Church in Hungary, to help the refugees of Ukraine. Caritas

Hungary provides supplies, medicines and housing for refugees, mostly women and children.

Branch members are grateful for the opportunity to assist the Ukrainian refugees fleeing to Hungary. Our thoughts and prayers are with the Ukrainian people and Ukrainian soldiers for their peace and safety.

We welcome the members of Branch 16 Perth Amboy, NJ to Branch 51 and look forward to joining with you for our branch activities.

We wish all mothers a Happy Mother's Day.

Congratulations to all those celebrating graduations.

And may everyone stay safe and healthy.

Is it really so? Could we be seeing sunshine and warm weather and no snow? You all know what that means--golf season is here.

It's going to be a fun year, and we can't wait to see you at our branch golf outing this year. It will be held June 25 at Champion Lakes Golf Course in Bolivar, PA, about five miles from the Bethlen Home Communities. All proceeds will go to the First Hungarian Reformed Church of Homestead to help with the expenses necessary for maintaining this fine church.

The package includes golf, cart and dinner...and maybe something a little extra. We pride ourselves on having one of the best prize packages and auction tables around. This year will be no different. We already have our logo balls (see left) purchased and have plenty of other cool stuff, golf and otherwise. I promise you the "mystery bag," which I take care of personally, will not disappoint.

This year, we're looking for a few good souls to sponsor various parts of the outing. We will also be accepting donations for prizes. Lottery tickets and gift cards are tops on our list.

Most of all, we'd like to see you. If you don't play, you can volunteer. If you'd rather just come for dinner, that's okay with us, too. The meals at Champion Lakes are homemade, including their special desserts.

This is not only a fundraiser for the church but also a chance to enjoy fellowship with members of our branch. Come, make a day of it. You won't be disappointed.

Branch 89 has joined with Great Love Ministries and to collect canned food and boxed meals (like macaroni and cheese and pasta) for the less fortunate in the Steel Valley Area. Most of all, we'd like to see you. If you don't play, you can volunteer. If you'd rather just come for dinner, that's okay with us, too. The meals at Champion Lakes are homemade, including their special desserts.

This is not only a fundraiser for the church but also a chance to enjoy fellowship with members of our branch. Come, make a day of it. You won't be disappointed.

Branch 89 has joined with Great Love Ministries and to collect canned food and boxed meals (like macaroni and cheese and pasta) for the less fortunate in the Steel Valley Area. Food items may be dropped off at The First Hungarian Reformed Church of Homestead, 416-10th Ave., Munhall, or may be brought to our home address at 1836 Timothy Drive, West Mifflin, PA. We will also gladly accept monetary donations. Make your check payable to "William Penn Association Branch 89."

We will also be accepting gently worn or new children's clothing.

We are fortunate to have nice homes with heat, food and clothing, while others in the area have to figure out where their next meal may be coming from or how to provide clothing for their children. If everyone would contribute a little bit, just imagine how much help we could provide.

Branch 89 sends out heartfelt condolences to the families of recently departed William Stasko. Bill and his wife, Alvalee Kuhlank Stasko, were longtime members of our branch. You will be missed.

Branch 89 extends belated birthday wishes to Robert S. Toth, Helena Lubiano, Timothy E. Toth, Nancy S. Toth and Dr. Keith S. Toth. We hope you had a very special day.

Our branch continues to help make repairs to the parsonage at The First Hungarian Reformed Church. We're also hoping to provide some needed tender loving care to the church's grand pipe organ. The price for this maintenance, which will include a brand new chime console, is scheduled to come in at slightly under $2,000.

Remember, do something special for someone. Make a call, pay them a visit, run an errand for them. We all need to pitch in together to work through these trying times.

Speaking of calling someone, we wanted to let all of our readers know that our mailing address for Branch 89 has changed. Please direct all mail to 1836 Timothy Drive, West Mifflin, PA 15122. Our phone number is 412-872-5022.

Branch 89 hopes everyone enjoyed a blessed Easter Holiday, and extends our wishes for a very safe and happy Mother's Day to all those mothers out there. For you children out there, take some time and give your mother a call. It will brighten her day.

Take care, stay safe and stay up-to-date on your COVID vaccinations. Just heard there is yet another booster coming out. Please get whatever boosters are available. We want everyone to be around for a long, long time.

Branch 129 Columbus, OH

By Debbie Lewis

Hello from Branch 129. We wish everyone good health as we are all getting older.

Now that schools are about to be out for the summer and vacations seem to be getting back to normal, please be safe in all your travels in 2022.

Mother's Day is May 8, a day to celebrate and show appreciation to all mothers and mother figures, as well as grandmothers. We hope all mothers have a great day and are able to see or talk to their children and grandchildren.

May 30 is Memorial Day, when we commemorate all the men and women who have died in military service for the United States. We hope you will be able to mark this day--and celebrate the unofficial kick-off of the summer season-- with family and friends.

Our branch participated in this year's Join Hands Against Hunger and the Easter Basket programs.

Congratulations to all our members who are graduating from high school or college. Good luck to all of you in your future education plans or job searches.

Don't forget: all those applying for a grant through the WPFA Scholarship Foundation must submit their application and essay by May 27. This is a great program for our young members.

If you have been a recipient or have had a child or grandchild benefit from this program, please consider giving back with a monetary donation to the Foundation.

We congratulate all those celebrating birthdays, anniversaries and additions to their families.

Get well wishes to all who have been ill or hospitalized. Hope you all have a speedy recovery.

We extend our sincere sympathy to all those who have recently lost a loved one.

For all your life insurance and annuity needs, or if you have any news you would like to share, please contact Debbie Lewis at 614-875-9968 or email DAL9968@aol.com.

Branch 132 South Bend, IN

By John E. Burus

Spring is in the air. The trees are budding, the grass is green, the flowers are popping, and it is time to start the garden for fresh vegetables. The best time of the year!

The next Branch 132 meeting will be held on Tuesday, June 14, at the Martin's Supermarket Deli (first floor) on Ireland Road, South Bend, at 5:00 p.m.

The 12th annual branch summer picnic will be held Sunday, July 31, at Potawatomi Park Pavilion number one from 1:00 to 3:00 p.m. Please make your reservations by July 24 so we can plan accordingly. The park permit has already been secured. Hope to see all our members.

Branch 132 made a food donation to the Mishawaka Food Pantry, Inc. on March 1 as part of WPA's Join Hands Against Hunger campaign. Our donation was much appreciated as this is a slow time of the year for most food banks, yet people are still hungry as many have food security issues. I encourage all the branches to support their local food banks and pantries so those in need can have a proper meal. It makes the heart feel good to give to the community.

Branch 226 McKeesport, PA

By Judit Ganchuk

We wish happy birthday and happy anniversary to all who celebrate in May.

Sending warm wishes to Branch Auditor Wayne Nelson, Branch Auditor June Coyne, Goldie Szarka, Branch Vice President Janet Sparico and her husband Joe.

Sending get well wishes to Branch Secretary Gerry Nelson and Cathy Trunzo. We are thinking of you and sending prayers to give you strength.

Memorial Day is a somber occasion for many families. My Uncle Peter died Memorial Day weekend 1969 in Vietnam. He was 24 years old. His name is engraved on the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, DC and also the Alle-Kiski Vietnam Memorial in Lower Burrell, PA near the V.F.W. Post 92, about 30 minutes from downtown Pittsburgh. This Memorial Day, we remember, honor and pray for those who died while serving in the military. We thank them for the ultimate sacrifice.

We pray for the friends and families of branch members we have lost: David V. Godfrey, Regina W. Kisner and Laura L. Nicholas.

Our branch was able to donate funds to a local Ukrainian church to aid in efforts to support Ukraine.

We hope our local golfers will consider attending the 36th WPA Golf Tournament on June 25. More information and a registration form can be found in this issue.

Quick questions for you: have you updated your beneficiaries on your life insurance or annuity? Does your spouse have coverage with us? Have your children begun the paperwork for this year's scholarship program? You have time to discuss these ideas with your family, but don't wait too long!

Do you have good news you'd like us to share? Call Branch President Malvene Heyz at 412-751-1898 to get your news published.

Keep hope alive. Every storm runs out of rain.

Branch 249 Dayton, OH

By Mark Schmidt

Well, we are back to reporting monthly, finally. Covid is still around but just in the background, so on to summer. Yeah, yeah, I know I'm early, but we have lots of catching up to do. Unpack the camping gear, get out the fishing rods, dust off those golf clubs and get yourself outside. Don't waste a minute of sunshine. I'm declaring it: SUMMER IS HERE!

There's still lots of time for you to practice your tee shots before the WPA Golf Tournament on June 25 at Kennsington Golf Club, Canfield, OH. Remember the old saying: drive for show, putt for dough. And, don't forget the hole-in-one challenge--it's your chance to pay for that vacation to the beach.

Considering the price of gasoline, this fraternal event is an economical way to have a great weekend. Canfield is a short drive for many WPA members, so why not join us?

While you're at it, mark your calendar for the WPA Picnic on Aug. 20. This is a great way to end the summer.

I hope everyone had a blessed Easter with family and friends.

Branch 249 will be donating to Queen of Martyrs Catholic Church and helping out with their landscaping for Join Hands Day. The church has just about finished the physical recovery from the tornado damage of 2019, and we are pleased to be able to help them in this way. As soon as I have their schedule, I will send emails out to local members.

In a way, she is directly responsible for ALL you do and have done; so don't forget mom on Mother's Day. Send her all the love you can.

Happy birthday to you May babies. Celebrate as if you don't care who is looking, especially you, mom. Same to you married couples celebrating anniversaries.

And, don't forget all the new babies that have come along. We welcome you to the WPA family.

We remember and pray for the friends and family who have passed away. Though they may be gone in body, they are still with us in our hearts.

Call Anne Marie or me with any insurance or annuity questions at 937-308-4670. We will help you with all things WPA.

If you have any information for next month's article, please let me know at amschmidt@msn.com or call at 937-938-0198.

I hope this time finds you "as full of spirit as the month of May, and as gorgeous as the sun in mid-summer." (William Shakespeare)

Branch 296 Springdale, PA

By Mary A. Kelly-Lovasz

Can it be May, already? It seems like John and I were just brushing snow off our cars (and, we probably were). This year is moving along too quickly for me.

First, an important reminder for our high school seniors and renewing WPFASF, Inc. students. Now is the time to submit your applications and essays for WPA's undergraduate scholarship grant. Review our updated 2022 rules and application which appear in this issue of William Penn Life. Or, you can download them from our website at www.wpalife.org.

Submission deadline for your application and essay is May 27. Don't delay!

My happy announcement is that Branch 296 will meet at 6:00 p.m., on Thursday, May 26, in the Tarentum (Pittsburgh Mills) Eat'n Park Restaurant's meeting room. Although the meeting time and venue have changed, it's a relief to be able to announce this. Returning to regular meetings has been a long time coming, and we'll be setting our sights on various projects.

I mentioned in the last issue a return to our branch bacon roast. Now, that is something delicious to look forward to. Please join us for our meeting and bring us any ideas for Branch 296. No idea is a bad idea, and we welcome all ideas.

Is golf your game? Register for WPA's Golf Tournament to be held Saturday, June 25, at Kennsington Golf Club in Canfield, OH. As in the past, this one-day event benefits the WPFA Scholarship Foundation. This will be a great way to renew old acquaintances and win some prizes. Look for the registration information in this issue.

Save the date for the return of the WPA Picnic on Saturday, Aug. 20, at the terrific Shrine Center in Cheswick, PA. As with other national fraternal events, WPA had to take a pandemic pause for this picnic, but due to a resurgence of interest, it is back! Look in upcoming issues for more details.

Warm Mother's Day wishes to all moms, grandmas and those who have acted in place of mothers. We love you, and we shall royally spoil you on your special day. For those mothers who are no longer with us, you are greatly missed. Remembering each of you, we anticipate our reunion with you when our earthly life is over.

Cheerful birthday greetings to all of our 296-ers celebrating May birthdays, especially Helen Slaninka and Diane Baranowski.

This is also a time for weddings, so happy anniversary and congratulatory wedding wishes as well.

For those who are recuperating from an illness or injury, we want you to be well--and soon! If you know of someone who is recovering, find some way to reach out to them. Sending a card, giving them a phone call or even visiting them, if they are able to receive visitors, means so much to that person. It gives them a boost, knowing that you care.

Anyone who is grieving the loss of a loved one, please know that we are thinking of you.

Branch 296 member Alexander Josza Bodnar passed away recently, and no doubt he is missed by those throughout the Greater Pittsburgh area. A Pittsburgh restaurateur with a passionate and creative spirit, Alex rubbed elbows with the likes of celebrity chef Anthony Bourdain and the movers and shakers of our region. A teen-aged survivor of the 1956 Hungarian Revolution, Alex immigrated with his family to the United States, settling in Pittsburgh. He loved his adopted country, as he loved Hungary, and devoted his life in celebrating both cultures. Every day was a celebration for Alex and we will miss him.

God grant Alex, and each of our dearly departed, eternal rest, and may perpetual light shine upon them.

Have any branch news, birthday, anniversary or personal shout outs that you would like to share? Contact me at makelly367@verizon.net or at 724-274-5318.

Noreen Fritz, our caring and helpful WPA agent, can answer your life insurance and annuity questions. You may reach Noreen at 412-821-1837 or email her at noreen.fritz@comcast.net.

I'll be eager to see you at our next meeting on May 26. Better days are ahead!

Branch 349 Weirton, WV

We thank William Penn Association for giving our branch the means to donate to needy individuals and organizations for the Easter Basket program this year. The organizations and family we contributed to were very thankful to have received the donations.

We wish happy birthday to WPA members with birthdays this month and best wishes to those with anniversaries.

Our prayers go out to those who may have lost loved ones recently.

Continue to stay safe and healthy. We want to see you at our next WPA Golf Tournament on June 25 at Kennsington Golf Club in Canfield, OH, and the WPA Picnic on Aug. 20 in Cheswick, PA. Lots of fun in store for everyone in the family!

The William Penn Fraternal Association Scholarship Foundation, Inc. application deadline is May 27. If you have been a past recipient of a scholarship, please think about paying it forward and making a donation to the Scholarship Foundation. Every donation received makes a difference to our students.

If you are a student, take a few minutes to complete your application and short essay answering the question: "If you could travel anywhere, where would you go and why?" I would have far too many ideas for my own travel itinerary to keep it under 150 words.

If you've thought about donating to any campaign to raise money for Ukraine, I encourage you to make your donation through the William Penn Association Foundation, Inc. Your donation will be matched by WPA, doubling the impact of your contribution for aid to Ukraine.

This issue's interesting fact: A sequel to the super-popular holiday classic, A Christmas Story, is in the works. It will star Peter Billingsley, reprising his role as Ralphie, but now as an adult, who returns to the house on Cleveland Street to give his kids a magical Christmas like the one he had as a child. He'll reconnect with childhood friends and reconcile the passing of his "old man." Billingsley will be the executive producer of this film entitled, A Christmas Story Christmas, which will be shot in Hungary instead of Cleveland.

You can call on Alan Szabo for all your insurance needs at 330-482-9994.

For information about our branch activities, please call Joyce Nicholson at 740-264-6238. If you have any news to share, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Until we meet again, may God be with you.

Branch 800 Altoona, PA

By Joan B. Ballash

A blessed and happy Mother's Day to all who are mothering under various circumstances. Thank you for the love and warmth you demonstrate to those in your care. And let us not forget our dear mothers who have passed into their heavenly home and left us with treasured memories.

Branch 800 participated in WPA's Easter Basket program by providing supermarket gift cards to individuals and families in the area. The incentive offered by the Home Office is appreciated.

The third Saturday of May is Armed Forces Day, when we have the opportunity to recognize our active military personnel. Thank them for their service.

On May 30, Memorial Day, our country honors the women and men who gave their lives in service to America. In Altoona, we are fortunate to have "The Wall That Heals," a half-scale replica of the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, DC. The replica is on the grounds of the James E. Van Zandt VA Medical Center. It is open daily and admission is free. There are 58,202 names on the wall. Our condolences to the families and friends of these individuals.

We also offer our sympathy to those who are grieving the recent passing of Karen S. Ellenberger and Mary L. Kuny. May Mary and Karen rest in the arms of God.

Happy graduation to students of every age completing programs at all levels. Be proud of your achievement.

Undergraduates, there is still time, if you hurry, to submit an application for a grant from the WPFA Scholarship Foundation for the 2022-23 academic year.

Congratulations to everyone celebrating an anniversary, a birthday or other special occasion during May.

Branch 800 meetings are held on the second Tuesday of each month, beginning at 7:00 p.m., at Our Lady of Lourdes Education Center, 873-27th St., Altoona. All adult members are welcome to attend. There will be no branch meetings in June or July. The August meeting will take place at the annual picnic on Wednesday, Aug. 3, at 6:00 p.m. at Highland Park.

The Hungarian Cultural Garden (Part 2)

Several years ago, a puzzle was dedicated to the Hungarian Cultural Garden located not far from the southern shore of Lake Erie in Cleveland. Since then, many noteworthy improvements and additions to the two-tiered garden have been made.

Last year, a metal statue called "The Wings of Peace" (A Béke Szárnyai) was unveiled on the lower level along the Magyar Legacy Wall.

This summer, two major celebrations will take place. On Sunday, June 26, at 4:00 p.m., a concert featuring the music of Franz Liszt will dedicate two monuments honoring Hungarian composers Béla Bartók and Zoltán Kodály.

On Sunday, Aug. 28, from noon to 6:00 p.m., each of the 40+ cultural gardens will host an open house on One World Day, featuring a parade down MLK Blvd., plus dozens of musicians, dancers and various ethnic foods.

That day, the Hungarian Garden will present The Budapest Cafe featuring all Magyar cakes and savory side dishes, music by my brother Ándrás on his Bohák cimbalon, Hungarian dancers and Rubik's Cube demonstrations.

The Hungarian Cultural Garden is always open for visiting during daylight hours. The palatial grounds host many tours, weddings and family outings, with guests soaking up the ambience of this garden's flora and fauna.

For those of you who golf, the Hungarian Garden invites you to its annual golf outing, dinner and reception at the historic Mayfield Country Club on Thursday, July 21.

To learn more about the Hungarian Garden, become a member, support the organization, volunteer or attend one of the featured events mentioned, visit www.hungarianculturalgarden.org or its Facebook page.

This month's puzzle consists of 15 clues, each relating the Hungarian Cultural Garden. Good Luck!
